When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand.

And said my place was ready,
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

If I could relive yesterday,
Just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you
And maybe see you smile.

So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

Sunrise:

Gregory Banks, Age 51, was born August 10th, 1952 to Charles E. Banks and Dorothy M. Banks in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Greg attended the Cincinnati Public Schools system and graduated from the Courter Tech High School in 1970, where he excelled in Gymnastics and Graphic Arts.

Greg enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1970 where he received the rank of a Lance Corporal. Upon leaving the Marine Corps, he spent many years at General Motors Assemble Division located in Norwood, Oh where he had made many friends. He was lastly employed in a line of work that he truly loved through the "LAKEFRONT LINES" where he traveled all over the United States, making numerous lifetime friends every mile of the way. Greg enjoyed his passengers and always made them feel safe and secure while traveling with him. This was evident by the requests that poured into the company asking for him by name to be their driver. His last trip was to Bloomington, Ill on May 7th, 2004.

Greg was also an avid motorcycle rider. He truly loved exploring the highways cruising on his Harley's. We will always remember his humor, compassion and joy of riding and rebuilding his Harley's.

Sunset:

Greg departed this earthly life on June 5th, 2004, at the Hospice of Cincinnati with many family and friends by his side. He leaves to cherish his memory, his dearly beloved daughter, Andrea Squire; devoted father, Charles E. Banks, loving mother, Dorothy M. Banks; brother; Glenn Banks, sisters; Victoria B. Banks-Lowry (Fred), Regina Banks, Phyllis A. Banks-Reed (Richard) and Karen Banks-Fuller (Lemulle), nieces; Tonya, Amber, Avalon, nephews; Chris, Antonio, Alexander, William and many dear close relatives and friends.

IN APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair,

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

*Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend
could say,*

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much, whatever the part.
