Obituary

Mr. Thomas Rozier was born on June 19, 1948 in Statesboro, Georgia to the late Artis and Eddie Mae Hobbs Rozier. At an early age, he joined the family of the St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church of Register, Georgia. He entered into eternal rest on Friday, March 12, 2010 at Orlando Regional Medical Center after a short illness.

Thomas was educated in the public school system of Bulloch County. He moved to Orlando, Florida in 1988. After relocating, he joined Greater New Hope Baptist Church. He was employed with the City of Orlando and retired in 2005.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Levester Rozier and Cardell Rozier and one sister, Bessie R. Mincey.

Those left to cherish his fond memory and live with the hope of seeing him again are: three sons, Thomas Rozier, Jr. and Titus Rozier both of Statesboro, Georgia and Arthur Fisher of Orlando, Florida; two daughters, Tameka Rozier (Andra) Ward and DeAndre Rozier all of Statesboro, Georgia; five brothers, Bennie Rozier of Ft. Pierce, Florida, Hudson (Helen) Rozier of Portal, Georgia, Eddie Rozier and Kermit (Evelyn) Rozier all of Statesboro, Georgia and Ray Charles (Mae) Rozier of Athens, Georgia; three sisters, Artis Faye Rozier and Rosetta (Norman) Brown all of Statesboro, Georgia and Brenda (Frank) Strowbridge of Bellville, Georgia; five grandchildren, Darius Wigfall, Candice Wigfall, Alexis Ward and Destiny Murray all of Statesboro, Georgia and Daffney Mattox of Claxton, Georgia, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

For all the laughs you've given us and the struggles we had to face, the Lord helped us through and gave you a resting place. We thank Him for our memories both pleasant and sad. But most of all we thank Him for blessing us with our Dad!
