NUMBER 26

Bancroft, Williams To Be Presented In Recital

Mr. Laysal Bancroft of Savannah, senior voice student, and Mr. Earl Williams of Albany, senior clarinet student, will be presented by the Music Department of Georgia Teachers College in a senior recital on Tuesday night at 8:15 in the college auditorium.

Mr. Bancroft entered TC in '47 as a Music Major and English Minor. Mr. Bancroft is a Lyric tenor and many of the students will remember him from several of the recitals given here.

Mr. Williams entered TC by transfer from Emory University in Atlanta in '47 as a Music Major and an English Minor. Mr. Williams has a UNIQUE STYLE on the clarinet and is well liked by the students here who know him by his good work in the college orchestra, "The Professors."

Numbers to be included on the program will be "Concentina" by Weber; "Andant" from the Pathétique Symphony by Tschaiakow-

G.S.C.W. Acapella Choir Sings At TC

The students of Georgia Teachers College were entertained this morning by the A Capella Choir from Georgia State College for Women at Milledgeville. This choir is under the direction of Mr. Max Noah, one of the outstanding musicians in the South.

The girls arrived on the campus last evening and received a hearty welcome this morning. This group is on their annual tour throughout this section of the state.

"Papa Is All" To Be Presented May 27

The spring production, Papa Is All, will be presented in the college auditorium Friday, May 27, at 8:15 p.m. The play will begin the series of events scheduled for the graduation exercises and will have a stella cast with the starring of Dan Biggers as "Jake"; Arthur Yarbrough as "Officer Brendel"; Anna Mann as "Mama"; Albin Eber (German exchange student) as "Papa"; Mildred Page as "Mrs. Yoder," and Latha Tyson as "Emma."

The public is cordially invited to attend and a large attendance will climax the end of a successful season for the Masquers. The play is under the capable direction of Miss Dorothy Stewart.

'Thank You' ---The Staff

The George-Anne staff wishes to thank the student body of TC for the wonderful cooperation that they have given the staff.

Without the students backing the paper, The George-Anne would never have attained the success that is now apparent to all. The one thing that makes a paper is the by-line under the flag, "Published By the Students of Georgia Teachers College." This will be the last full issue published by this staff and we have enjoyed (?) publishing this paper for you and we hope that the future staff of The George-Anne success, and good luck.

sky; "Polka," a Polish traditional song, all by Mr. Williams accompanied by Mr. Douglas Moore at the piano. "Ah, Moon of My Delight" by Lehmann; "Dream" by Grieg; "Come Back to Sorrento" by Di Curtis; all by Mr. Bancroft accompanied by Dr. Ronald J. Neil at the piano. One of the outstanding numbers on the program will be a solo, "Where'er You Walk" by Handel, sung by Mr. Bancroft, with a Clarinet obligato played by Mr. Williams.

Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A. Change Name

Last week at the regular meeting of YMCA and YWCA, the final steps were taken in the combination of the two organizations. The constitution was adopted and officers for next year were elected. The combination was made in an effort to make the religious organizations on the campus stronger. The purpose of the organizations were the same, therefore it was decided that more could be accomplished by combining of the two. For the past year this has been their goal. Steps have already been taken toward it by having every other meeting a joint meeting, and the council meetings were held together. Every project which has been undertaken, has been done cooperatively by the two organizations. Although the name has changed, the new organization will still be affiliated with the National YMCAs and YWCAs.

Men's Chorus Nears End Of Tour

The Men's Chorus, having played before capacity audiences in Metter, Bainbridge, Americus, Hawkinsville, and Eastman, now look forward to at least two more concerts before the season ends. Playing before a receptive audience in Metter, the Chorus was bolstered by the appearance of a group of TC students in the audience. The Chorus sang in Metter on Tuesday night, Bainbridge on Friday night, Americus on Saturday night, Hawkinsville on Sunday morning, and Eastman on Sunday night. The entire Chorus was greatly pleased by the hospitality shown by all the people in the various towns in which they had to spend the night. The town people opened their doors to them and the Chorus will never forget them.

The date for the production to be presented in the TC auditorium has not been set as yet, but when it is finally announced the students of TC will receive a treat that will not soon be forgotten. Mr. Laysal Bancroft is a very charming "Angelina," and his costume is very stunning. The two bridesmaids are out of this world and when they appear on the stage the audience should be "thrilled" by their "beauty." The story carries a moral for all to see, and the judge shows his most brilliant judgement in his final degree. Don't miss this show when it appears on the TC stage.

Teachers Nine To Invade N- Georgia

The Blue Tide nine will wind up their third post-war season this week when they invade north Georgia. The first game will be played on Thursday against Piedmont in Demorest. The Teachers split with Piedmont earlier in the season, winning the first game 10 to 7, and losing the next game 9 to 3.

On Friday the Blue Tide will tangle with the North Georgia "Cadets," and Saturday they will bring down the curtain with another game between the same two clubs. The Teachers hold a victory over North Georgia in their only game.

Despite the injuries, Coach Clements' nine has a good record with 13 victories and six defeats. They have defeated every club that they have played this year at least one time.

Playing their last game for the Teachers will be Durwood Davis, "Bo" Walker Whaley, Herb Reeves, Jimmy Conner, Doug Daniels, "Mitch" Conner, Carrol Edwards, and Al Williams.

Lab High Student Wins Award

Rayma Tyson, an outstanding student in the Laboratory High School, won the Inez Murray award — a scholarship which is given each year to three students in Georgia for outstanding work in home projects. Rayma's projects this year were (1) the celebration of Christmas in her home; (2) a community project of caring for an elderly couple (carrying them to church, and bringing cheer to them); (3) she made her own clothes, and clothes for her little sister and her mother.

In the Laboratory school this year Rayma has served as president of the Future Homemakers; editor of the "Little George-Anne," and will be first honor graduate of the class of 1949.

The award was presented by Dr. Mabley at the Future Homemakers Association banquet in Atlanta Saturday, May 7.

Faculty Announces The Honor Day Candidates

The following students are recommended by the Honors Committee to be honored by the faculty for scholarship and leadership service:

SCHOLARSHIP

Jack I. Biles, Sheldon Lee Chapman, Ruby Parrish Croom, James Herschel Evans, Grover Cleveland Futch Jr. James Weyman Gunter, Jasper Ellis Hargrove, Thomas Jordan Hill, Hoke Brook Smith Jr., James Howard Smith.

Iris Audrey Strickland, Ninette Sturgis, William Newsome Summerlin Jr., Ruth Etna Swinson, Charles William Taylor, Robert Harold Tyre, Betty Jean Williams, Edwin Lamar Wynn.

LEADERSHIP AND SERVICE

Sarratt, Hoke Brooks Smith Jr., Fred Waters, Walker W. Whaley Jr., Arthur C. Yarbrough.

These students will receive these honors at the June graduation exercises.

G.E.D. Tests Held

Dean Paul Carrol announced that 19 men stood the G.E.D. test last Tuesday. Those making passing marks on the test will be notified and will receive college credit on the courses that correspond to the tests. These tests are only for Veterans, and several hours of college credit may be obtained. Any veteran who has not taken these tests will be wise to do so at their earliest convenience.

I.R.C. Club Holds Regular Meeting

The International Relations Club held its regular meeting last Thursday night. Dr. Hubert Weaver was guest speaker.

The club has made plans to place a marker on one of the dormitories. Plans were also made to hold an election of officers for the club for the coming year.

Student Recital Be Held Thursday Night at 8:15

Students in the Division of Music will appear in a Spring Recital on Thursday, May 19, at 8:15 p.m. in the college auditorium. Pupils of Mr. Broucek, Mr. Rasmussen, and Dr. Neil will be heard.

Baptists To Attend Convention May 18

Ten thousand Baptists from 21 states will converge on Oklahoma City, Okla., May 18-22, for the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention—expected to be the largest religious gathering in America in 1949.

Rev. George Lovell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, said the 26,822 churches cooperating with the Convention have a total membership of 6,491,981.

The Convention at Memphis will hear reports of the many agencies supported by it both in this country and in foreign mission areas, and will plan for future activity, Rev. Lovell said. Evangelism and mission expansion are slated for primary emphasis in the years just ahead.

Day sessions of the Convention will be held in Oklahoma City's 6,500-seat Municipal auditorium an all night and Sunday session will be held in Taft Stadium, seating 20,000 people. A youth revival service led by Texas college students Saturday night and an evangelistic service Sunday night are expected to climax the sessions.

That the churches do choose to cooperate is evidenced by the fact that their gifts to the Convention's world-wide program totalled $8,865,000 in 1947. Colleges, seminaries, hospitals, benevolent institutions and mission work in a score of countries bear testimony to their united work in fulfilling the Great Commission.

'COLLEGEBORO AND STATESBORO'

This is an editorial that I really enjoy writing because even though a lot of people were very angry about the first editorial, "Collegeboro vs. Statesboro," I think that a lot has been accomplished through this series.

Every once in a while certain things are taken for granted and everyone lets things slip, and it takes a sudden shock to bring the certain things back into view, and let the persons know that they are not so unimportant as they thought. If nothing else has been accomplished in this editorial column we have accomplished this, and I am very thankful to all concerned.

All that I ask is that the relations be kept alive and make Statesboro and Collegeboro a place that we are both proud to claim as our own.

'YAK' SEZ:

"This paper is for the students and by the students; keep it that way."

To All Who Have Received Criticism:

Criticism is a hard thing for a person to take, but good criticism is a blessing to all concerned. I don't think that any student who wrote these letters had any intention of slander but wrote them in the hopes of making TC a better place to live. I would like to commend all who have been criticized for trying to improve the conditions that were in question.

It is a grand feeling in this country of ours, when you have something to get off your chest, you can think it, say it, and write it without fear of punishment from anyone or any source.

The George-Anne has tried to give the students a chance to voice their opinions in matters pertaining to the improvement of the college and they have supported this plan with due fervor. I, as Editor of The George-Anne, thank both the students and the ones criticized for their spirit in giving and receiving criticism.

I hope that in future years this COLUMN will continue as a means by which criticism can be given and taken without fear of recompense.

We have tried very hard on the Dining Hall, and several times we have been all but cussed out for what we had printed. I promised, when running for the job as Editor of The George-Anne, that I would not publish the name of any student who wrote me a letter. I haven't and will not, and the names of the students who have written letters have NOT gone past me.

THE EDITOR.

THAT LETTER HOME By L.L.R.

I take up my pencil and begin to write (Notebook paper should be all right)
I write on the first line,
"One O'clock" (Surely that heading will be no shock)
"Dearest Mama, Daddy, and everyone,
I'm plenty busy, I've gotta run,
But just a few lines to let you know
My social life is progressing too slow.
I got a call down the other night.
Cain't explain now, but it's all right;
I won't get shipped, that is, unless—
I don't change my ways and act my best.
My roommate and I are running away
No time to explain—Oh! the other day
I broke my arm, but I'm in a hurry
And you know I wouldn't want you to worry."
(I can't find a stamp—a trick of fate!
I guess I'll have to copy my roommate.)
"Dearest Mama, Don't take it too hard,
But I'm writing again on a penny postcard."

CHILDHOOD By E.C.

A child stood lonely by a tree With sober eyes he stared at me;
So round, unblinking, was his gaze,
He seemed a statue in amaze.
Child, what thoughts are in thy head?
Meat and drink, your daily bread,

Meet Your Instructor

HASSIE McELVEEN

The Editor says it is time for you to meet your Librarian, so I take my bow and say, "Pleased to meet you."

I was born here in Bulloch county, "Where Nature Smiles" and Georgia Teachers College has the "right away." It has been my privilege to spend the most of my life here, having attended elementary school, high school, and college within a radius of fifteen miles of my home.

After receiving by B.S. in Education at Georgia Teachers College, I taught in the public schools at Wadley, Ga., (Aunt Sophie's home) for two years. During the summer I attended the Library School at Peabody College where I received my Library Science degree. Later I attended the Columbia School of Library Service for one summer.

I began my career as Librarian here in the Laboratory Schools where I spent many happy hours telling fairy tales and sharing book experiences with children.
Later I was demoted to the position as your College Librarian where I am today looking for that red book which you need to use for your term paper.

Perhaps I should have told you that I have had the measles, mumps, chickenpox, and some other things like that, and that my favorite pastime is helping college students find more and more material about nothing.

GLADYS DeLOACH

Practically all of my life has been spent in this particular section of Georgia, a fact of which I am very proud, though, perhaps, it might add a bit more interest to this article if I could say that I had come from some far distant part of the world, or even from

No More Night Games At T. C.

TC closed their home season Wednesday night with Jacksonville Navy in a game that marked the end of night baseball for the Professors.

In a dictum Tuesday against night play, President Zach S. Henderson, a versatile athlete at Piedmont College in his day, asserted that "baseball is a daytime game, at least for colleges." Night contests are not feasible, he reasons. "The weather's too cold until mid-May; pitchers can't get into condition; people won't attend. "And," he adds, "Co-eds can't stay out until mid-night two or three nights in a week."

Next year the Profs will return to our own campus field, and though it has lights, games will be in the afternoon. The team has been using Pilots Field at the old Statesboro Air Base for several seasons, with nocturnal appearance as the rule.

"CLEAN-UP"

Several weeks ago we carried an article on the urns being placed on the campus for the boys to place their cigarettes in, and now we have a little bit more on that. There have been placed on the campus cans to place all that waste paper that has been floating around with no place to go. SO . . . when you go to drop that paper on the campus stop to think and place it in one of the cans that you will find around and help us to make the campus

Or estatic, blissful happiness
That God has made a world some other section of our own U. S. However, I must stick to facts, dull as they are.

I was born in Savannah, but my family moved to Statesboro about the time that I was ready to begin school; and, it was there that I graduated from high school.

I received my A.B. degree from G.S.C.W., Milledgeville, with a major in French. I had never considered any career, other than teaching school, and for several years I taught French (and various and sundry other subjects).
My first teaching experience was gained here in Bulloch county at Register High School; later, I taught at Claxton, Ga., which is only twenty - five miles away.
Teachers' salaries in Florida were enticing, even then, so I went to Florida for a year.

During that year, I married (I had met my husband the previous year while teaching in Claxton).
I gave up teaching as a career and went to live in Claxton, where I became busily absorbed in housekeeping and rearing (or should I say raising) two boys, Clark and Al, who are now fifteen and ten years old respectively.

A few years ago, at the death of my husband, I again went back into the teaching field. In some way, I hardly know how, myself, I became interested in library work and began study at Emory University on my degree in Library-Science, which I hope to receive at the end of this summer.

Because I am especially interested in working with children and young people (those of other people as well as my own), I have found my work in the Young People's Department of the library here at TC very satisfying and pleasant.

Workshops For Summer Sessions Is Announced

Three workshops for teachers will be conducted by Georgia Teachers College this summer—one on campus, one at Camilla, and the third at Hazlehurst, Ga.

The workshops are designed to meet the needs of teachers who desire to (1) re-instate or renew teaching certificate; (2) qualify for the professional certificate;
(3) pursue advanced work toward the B.S. degree in Education; (4) meet partial requirements for the P-5 certificate, and (5) work on individual school problems.

No person will be admitted who has not completed one year of successful teaching. While the credit may be earned in two courses during a workshop, not more than three workshops may be credited toward the degree or certificate requirements.

The workshop at Camilla High School is to be held June 8 to July 16, and is under the direction of Mr. H. O. Cravey, principal at Milan, Ga.

At Hazlehurst Elementary School Miss Marie Wood will direct the workshop July 18 through August 25.

The campus workshop under the direction of Dr. Thomas Little, will be held on the Georgia Teachers College campus from June 8 to July 16.

Application forms may be secured by writing Dr. Thomas C.
Little, Georgia Teachers College,
Collegeboro, Ga., prior to June 8.

A better looking place. Let's have the best looking campus in the state of Georgia.

Whitfield Accepts Position At TPI

Mr. Powell Whitfield, associate professor of Education at TC, has accepted a position as Professor of Education at Tennessee Poly-technical Institute in Cookeville, Tennessee, 84 miles due east of Nashville.

We bid Mr. Whitfield adieu and wish him all the success in his new position.

Know Your Post Office

The Post Office at TC is one of the most popular places on the campus. There you receive all those sugar reports that good old green stuff from PAPA and Uncle Sam. No one seems to know just how much trouble it takes to get all that mail put up and very few know the man in charge of all that trouble. Mr. Z. L. (Farley) Strange is the Postmaster and is very proud of his third-class Post Office. Mr. Strange has a group of student assistants and they work the following hours.
During the week—from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Saturday from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Sunday, the office is open from 9 to 10 a.m.

At the regular meeting of the Home Economics Club Monday night, officers for the year 1949-50 were elected. Ruth Smith gave a report on the Georgia Home Economics Association Convention which several of the girls attended in Atlanta last week, April 20-30.

The final social event of the club was a Beach Party yesterday at Tybee. Each member invited a guest. The girls prepared their own lunch.

Plans are also underway to present members of the clothing classes in a Fashion Show later in the month.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council wishes to thank the many people that took part in making the May Day Festivities the success that it was. Miss Jackie Upshaw and the Physical Education Department are to be congratulated on the smoothness and polish that characterized the entire afternoon. The Home Economics Club's handling of the Banquet for the Queen and her Court was another example of the cooperation that can be found on this campus if it only sought. Thanks to them. The first name that goes on the May Day Trophy is that of the Junior Class and we, of the council, are looking forward to returning in future years to cheer on the winners.

The Recreation Hour after supper is being well attended, but we have room for more people. If you don't dance and find the ping-pong tables taken, we have card tables and chinese checkers, cards, and other seated sports that you may enjoy. Come on and Saturday as a representative of the college.

"T" CLUB

Steps are being taken to present each "T" Club member with a gold-plated "T" to go on a watch chain. Most letter clubs present members with a lapel pin or a letter to go on a watch chain.

Since the last home baseball game of the season was played last week, the "T" Club would like to express appreciation to students for buying cokes, peanuts and other things from the concession stand at the ball park. Coach Seearge talked to the club about the possibility of donating a trophy case to be placed in the administration building or in the gym. Each club member was asked to write down at least one suggestion that the "T" Club could contribute to the TC campus.

BOOTS and BUNTS

The Blue Tide won two games last week, one from Mercer and one from Newberry.

The game at Mercer went 16 innings before the Tide won. Herb Reeves started on the mound for TC and was not relieved until the top half of the fifteenth when "Sonny" Clements came in.

Jimmy Calhoun drove in the winning run with a double to center-field after Parsons had walked and Bullock sacrificed him to second.

"Sonny" Clements was the winning pitcher for the second time this year.

After the Mercer game the Tide came home and defeated Newberry by the score of 5 to 2.

Newberry scored first in the top of the third when DuBose walked, and Chapman popped between pitchers mound and first base for a single, allowing DuBose to score.

In the last of the sixth TC scored six runs on one hit. Daniels was hit by the pitcher, K. Clements sacrificed, M. Clements and Al Williams walked to load the bases, Parsons hit a hard ground ball to second that went through the second baseman's legs, to allow Daniels and M. Clements to score. Bullock flied to right and Calhoun doubled to score Williams and Parsons.

In the eighth Parsons walked and took second when the pitcher threw wild on an attempt to catch him off base, and then scored on an error by the left fielder.

In the top of the ninth Newberry pushed across one run when Horton doubled and scored on Gambell's fly to right. This ended the scoring and the ball game, with TC winning 5 to 2.

Player of the Day, May 8—

"Bo" Whaley did a fine job of pitching in holding Newberry to two runs and four hits. Whaley pitched good ball when the chips were down, leaving ten men stranded on base in the first five innings, and 12 during the entire game.

HIGHLIGHTS

Horton, Newberry shortstop, robbed Bullock of a hit in the second inning when he laced up a line-drive.

In the third inning Chapman's pop-up and mixed signals allowed DuBose to score.

K. Clements made a beautiful running catch of Golden's fly in the fifth inning.

The Teachers scored four runs in the sixth on one hit, two walks, and one man hit by the pitcher.

In the ninth Al Williams grabbed Gambel's fly ball on the right field line after a long run.

SOFTBALL

In the single game played on May 4, Tomberlin Oliver 10 to 5.

Brinson, Tomberlin left fielder, had two hits in three trips to bat, one of which was a homerun, and led his team's hitters. Arnett led the Oliver team in hitting with a single and triple in three trips. Pool was the winning pitcher.

In the 4 o'clock game on May 9 Wire's team walked over Springhorn's 21 to 1 in five innings. Hal led the winner's hitting with a cool four for five, while Neil's one for two was the loser's best. The third inning was the biggest with Wireman's team scoring 12 runs. Dixon was the winning pitcher.

In the second game the same day, Peacock beat Oliver 10 to 7. Poppell led Peacock's hitters with a perfect three for three, and Kelly had three for five for the losers. Peacock's team scored all 10 of its runs in the third inning. Mullis was the winning pitcher.

In the game played in the rain on May 10, Tomberlin beat Olliff 20 to 6. Musselwhite led the Tomberlin hitters with a homerun, a double, and two singles in five trips to the plate. Musselwhite also scored four runs. For the Olliff team, McTier, Dubberly, J. Kicklighter, and Glenn all had one for three. Poole got the W.P. for this game.
