TC Makes Move To Organize New Conference

Georgia Teachers College is talking up a conference for Georgia and Florida colleges that want to minimize travel and offer limited financial assistance to athletes.

J. B. Searce Jr., director of athletics at the college, said today he is discussing the proposed conference with unaffiliated colleges in the two states.

In the league which he envisions each institution would set its own policy on aid to athletes, and would not be responsible to the other colleges. He believes this system would work because "small colleges would not be able to offer a great amount of athletic aid."

Searce said he wants it definitely understood that a new conference would not be in competition with the Dixie Conference, which prohibits athletic scholarships.

The Teachers College and North Georgia College were candidates for membership in the Dixie Conference in December, but officials delayed action on their applications. Since then, Stetson, Tampa, and Oglethorpe universities have announced plans for withdrawing from the association. All complained of excessive travel requirements, and Tampa declared it wants to follow an individual athletic policy.

The college here has no administrative-sanctioned athletic scholarships, but, according to Searce, is beginning to help a few deserving athletes through a fund created by alumni and other friends. Players must maintain a C-average in classroom work, and future applicants must submit to intelligence tests, Searce reports.

Purpose of the intelligence tests, Searce explained, is "to make sure applicants have the mentality to pass college courses in spite of the demands on their time in basketball and baseball seasons."

T.C. Host to Third German Student

Wednesday morning a third German student, Hans Brossman, began his studies at T.C. Hans, a native of the Ulm in the state of Wuerttemberg, comes to us after having graduated from a German teachers college, The Pedagogic Institute, at Nuertingen, and two years teaching experience in the elementary and high schools of Germany.

He joined two of his fellow countrymen, Albin Eber of Bavaria, who has been with us a year, and Gerd Matthecka, who came the middle of last quarter. Gerd and Hans are from the same state but were unacquainted.

Hans, who like Gerd, is being sponsored by the Brunswick Rotary Club, chose to come to America and Georgia Teachers College in order that he might learn more about the English language, as he plans to teach it upon returning to Germany. He also plans to learn new points of view on education.

During the war, Hans served two years as a corporal in the Signal Corps.

Upon being asked his first impression of America and G.T.C., he stated that he noticed a marked friendliness and helpfulness in the American people that he had not expected.

A Request

May I ask those who park their cars near East Hall to leave the drive entrance open for exits and entrances.

Thanks for your cooperation.

MRS. J. B. JOHNSON,
East Hall House Director.

Boys parking their cars between Sanford and the library, please leave room for pedestrians. Also, please do not park bumper-to-bumper.

She comes here under the joint sponsorship of the Bulloch County Board of Education, the Statesboro City Board of Education, the Georgia Teachers College, the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, Business and Professional Woman's Club, the Junior Woman's Club, the Bulloch County Educational Association, the County P.T.A. Council, the County Home Demonstration Council, and the County Farm Bureau.

Hymn Lovers to Hear Dr. Tucker

Announcement is made this week by members of the Student Group of the American Guild of Organists of the Teachers College that Dr. F. Bland Tucker, rector of Christ Church of Savannah, will speak here on "Church Hymns" Thursday afternoon, February 9, at 4 o'clock in the college auditorium.

Dr. Tucker, besides being a well-known clergyman, served on the joint commission on the revision of the hymnal of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The meeting is sponsored by the Teachers College Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

The meeting will be open and everyone is invited to hear Dr. Tucker, an authority on church hymns.

Concert Singers Here Thursday

Joseph Scandur, baritone, and Jean Swetland, lyric soprano, will appear in joint concert at Georgia Teachers College at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, February 9, as the third artists in the series sponsored by the college and Statesboro Concert Association.

Miss Swetland and Mr. Scandur became joint recitalists after Mr. Scandur's return to New York from service in the recent war, in which he rose from private to captain. They have sung in grand opera, Broadway operettas, on the concert stage, radio, and television. Their accompanist is Lee Peterson, young pianist of Cleveland, O.

Admission will be by membership only. Membership cards will be retained, Dr. Roger J. Holland Jr., said, for a final concert in the spring. Dr. Holland is president of the Concert Association.

Lonadine Morgan, sophomore from Egypt, Georgia, was crowned "Miss Teachers College of 1950" by last year's winner, Betty Fuller, in the fourth annual beauty revue held in the college auditorium Thursday night. Keith Clements made a record himself by escorting the beauty queen two years in succession, Miss Fuller in 1949's revue and Miss Morgan in the 1950 revue.

The five most beautiful girls on our campus, according to the carefully selected beauty revue judges, are, in succession from first to fifth: Lonadine Morgan, Egypt sophomore, sponsored by East Hall; Dot Holloway, Cobbtown sophomore, sponsored by I.R.C.; Betty Lewis, Quitman senior, sponsored by Masquers; Joan Harper, Dublin sophomore, sponsored by West Hall; and Caroline Smith, Metter senior, sponsored by the English Club.

The stage setting for the 1950 revue, which followed the theme of the "Old South," was the front of a beautiful Southern mansion. The 29 girls who participated came out the front door of the mansion to meet their respective escorts and walked across the spacious front lawn to the exit. Most of the girls chose white, hoop-skirted evening dresses for the occasion, although Joan Harper and Dot Holloway varied with pink and blue.

Gay Kimbrough sang "A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody" before the curtain rose for the first act. Mr. Jack Broucek accompanied Miss Kimbrough and also furnished delightful organ music during and between acts of the revue.

The girls came down the aisles of the packed auditorium to the stage on the arms of their escorts.

The first act featured the following contestants, their escorts, and sponsors: Lonadine Morgan—Keith Clements, East Hall; Sara Betty Jones—Bob Trice, Men's Chorus; Peggy Purser—Zack Williams, Lewis Hall; Peggy Robinson—Douglas Moore, the Philharmonic Choir; Emily Williams—Billy Teets, Industrial Arts Club; Jo Starr—A. J. Morris, Wesley Foundation; Anna Maria Tippins—Alec White, Mu Sigma; Alethia Edwards—George Herndon, S. C. A.; Jeanne "Bunny" Brown—Graham Woodell, George-Anne; Faye Joyner—Archie Nesmith, Organ Guild; Joan Harper—Bennie Walters, West Hall; Martha Driskell—Ed Mitchell, Concert Band; Mary Earle Powell—Dan Biggers, Student Council; Doris Townsend—Jerry Pryor, Art Club; Elizabeth Conner—Joe Smith, B. TC Needs a Night Watchman

T.C. NEEDS A night watchman—a full-time, well-paid, competent man who is capable of keeping peace on our campus at night, especially after 11 p.m. Prowlers, peeping toms, thieves, and rowdy noise-makers have no place on a respectable college campus. Much of the above-mentioned has gone on, on our campus, and much is still going on. Something has got to be done about it so people can go to sleep at night without wondering "what will take place outside my window tonight?" It is not that we are frightened by wierd noises, peeping toms, thieves and prowlers, it is the fact that such going-ons get down-right monotonous.

Many of the girls, and I know many of the boys also, feel that a night watchman would be a very beneficial addition to our campus. Most colleges do have night watchmen, and although funds may be low insofar as salary for such an individual is concerned, it would pay the college in the long run. Some may disagree on the surface, but deep in everyone's heart he knows that a better "feeling of security" would result if he knew his community was safe.

The term NIGHT WATCHMAN does not necessarily refer to policeman or law enforcer. Shall we call him a protector of the rights of every member of the community?

It looks as if something drastic like a kidnapping or killing, burned building or broken safe is going to have to happen to wake everyone up to the fact that we do need a night watchman on this campus. Let's act now, before it is too late.

Students, Please Take Notice

STUDENTS, IF YOU HAVE NOT turned in your name for the home management house, please do so today. Turn it in to either The George-Anne office, or drop it in the slot in Mr. Kopp's door. We would appreciate immediate cooperation in this matter.

Also, turn in the slips you filled out expressing your three choices of movies you would most like to see. Mr. Mason needs this information immediately so that he can be sure of making changes in his bookings.

Ballad of Former TC Professor

One day I walked about T.C.
About T.C. I walked.
And as I walked about T.C.
I heard a lot of talk!
I heard a lot of talk, I say,
I heard a lot of noise;
A lot of it was made by girls
And, well—you could hear the boys!
Where was this noise? On campus grounds?
Or in the dining hall?
I fear the awful truth must out—
Our teachers heard it all!

Dates are made, and dates are kept

Within our learned walls,
Sometimes a courtship will begin—
Our teachers hear it all!
Our "red-hot" team doth merit praise.
And just a little blame—
And teacher's ear will always hear
The blankety-blank umpire's name!

In chewing gum and bubble, too
We find a lot of joy;
Our pleasure is quite audible
To every girl and boy.
Oh, books will fal, and "wolves" will call,
While pencils dance a jig!
And shoes, size four, upon the floor
Always sound twice as big!

Our teachers hear it all, my friends.
Come, gather round and cheer
Them on their winding path of life
With just one parting tear!

—EDITH CARPENTER.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Let's start an honor system on our campus. Othehr colleges have the system, why can't we? I firmly believe an honor system would diminish or even do away with cheating. If a student feels he can be trusted, he'll not go near so far as he does when he feels his every move is being critically watched. It's not the place of the faculty or administration to set up such

PERKINS DUNKS TWO as TC sinks Applachian. "Scotty" has led the Tide to a 17-2 record this year while he has set a 45.5 percentage of field goal attempts.

Coach J. B. Searce Wins Award From Sports Club in Chicago

Coach J. B. Searce has been awarded a framed certificate by the newly-formed sports Trail Century Club in Chicago.

Coach Searce, with a record of 145 victories in basketball (not including this season), is the first coach in this area that has received this award. Of these 145 victories, 131 have been college games. At Norman Junior College he won 50 and lost 38; at North Georgia College he won 14 and lost 7; and at T.C. he has won 39 and lost 8 in the past two seasons.

Basketball is not the only sport that the "Little Man" has excelled in. At Norman Park his teams in baseball won 43 and lost 25; at Cumberland he won 7 and lost 4; and at T.C. his teams won 20 and lost 10. At North Georgia College his tennis team won the state championship with a 11-1 record.

Searces Are Very Scarce

Since persons named Searce are scarce, Coach J. B. Searce of Georgia Teachers College was surprised this week to receive a letter from J. B. Searce of Indianapolis. The Indiana stranger heard of the coach over a Baton Rouge, La., station.

I.M. WATCHED.

Dear I.M.,

I'll take the matter up with the Student Council and I can assure you that its members will be behind you 100 percent. Your suggestion should be enough to start the ball rolling in the right direction. It's take a lot of work, though, to change your name from I.M. Watched to I.M. Fair.

Gun Invented, Teachers Demented

By JIM YOUNG

A rapid-fire, magazine-loading pea-shooter has just been patented. This new weapon ranks with the atomic bomb as a major menace to society.

In the eyes of teachers it may become even more terrible than bubble gum.

If teacher walks into class wearing a suit of armor, you can bet it won't be to illustrate a story about the Knights of the Round Table.

School principals may have to take a tip from saloon keepers of the wild west and make the boys check their weapons at the door.

Principals office in no time at all will look like a small boy's arsenal—sling shots, cap pistols, and pea-shooters. There might even be some room left for the principal.

That's not to imply that all school boys should lug armloads of armaments to class. Once in a while you'll find one who has a free hand for carrying books.

Between the first and second acts, in which 17 of the 29 candidates were eliminated, and between the second and third acts, in which five others were eliminated, George Parrish gave his already campus-famous Al Jolson act.

In Act III, Monroe Warren sat by the fireside, gazing at a picture frame above the white mantle, in which the seven remaining contestants appeared.

Act IV featured a garden scene on the front lawn of the mansion. The five top winners rose from garden chairs and carried baskets of flowers into the house. It was not until Act V, however, that the audience knew where each of the five girls placed in the finals.

In Act V the winners rejoined their escorts on and around the porch and steps of the white mansion.

Several business firms in town paid tribute to "Miss T.C." by giving her and her escort a free dinner and flowers.

The Alpha Rho Tau, under the direction of Miss Freida Gernant, did an excellent job of constructing the entire stage setting, flowers and all.

Mr. Jack Averitt, sponsor of the revue, stated after the program that he believed this to be the most successful and spectacular revue T.C. has ever had.
