STATESBORO, Ga. - Georgia Southern University Athletics would like to invite all former softball student-athletes, coaches, trainers, equipment managers and their families to the 2018 Softball Alumni Reunion!

The reunion will be held Saturday, March 25 and Sunday, March 26, 2018, in Statesboro.

Alumni are invited to kick the weekend off with a complimentary golf outing at the Georgia Southern University Golf Course at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday morning. Then join former teammates and friends to cheer on the Georgia Southern softball team as they compete in a doubleheader against the University of Louisiana Monroe at 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

On Sunday, alumni are invited to join the softball team for a pregame breakfast before they take the field one last time against ULM.

The reunion is open to all former student-athletes, coaches, trainers and managers of Georgia Southern softball, and their families.

Those interested in attending should register at GSEagles.com/GATA by Monday, March 19, 2018!

Game tickets must reserved or purchased! All former Georgia Southern softball student-athletes, coaches, managers and athletic trainers are eligible to receive one (1) complimentary ticket to each of the softball game against ULM and can purchase additional family tickets for $3.00 per ticket. Tickets can be picked up and purchased upon arrival at the game or online. Promo code will be available on your event registration confirmation.

The weekend is sponsored in part by the GATA Club. The mission of GATA Club is to provide a platform to "Get Athletes Together Again" as well as re-engage alumni with the Georgia Southern Athletics community through mentoring and networking opportunities and special events. The GATA Club also strives to provide ways for former Athletics Alumni to continue their legacy by supporting current student athletes academically, athletically and professionally. GATA Club events are open to former student-athletes, coaches, trainers and managers, and their families.
