STATESBORO - The Georgia Southern Eagles will hit the field this Thursday for the first of 15 spring football practices under head coach Chad Lunsford. With the spring session upon us, the athletics department has finalized its policies and procedures in regards to practices and the public.

- 1) All practices are open to the public and the staff encourages all who want to come watch to come out and check things out!
- 2) Fans may enter the Beautiful Eagle Creek Practice Fields through the gate off Tillman Road. A parking lot is available as well.
- 3) While every practice is open to the public and media, we ask you help us keep a competitive advantage by not posting videos and detailed information from practice on social media.
