Handy electronic devices you can borrow from the Circulation Desk!

April 23, 2014

Books aren't the only thing you can check-out at the Circulation Desk on the 2nd floor of the Henderson Library. We have many electronic devices you can borrow for use in the library, while some others can also be used outside of the library. Some items are provided by the Student Technology Fee and may only be checked out by Georgia Southern students. Other equipment is available for faculty and staff too. If you have suggestions for additional devices, let us know. More info can be found at:

For in-house use:

Laptops

iPads

Projectors

Multicard readers

ADVC Converter Box

Extra USB charging cables for iPads and iPhones

Removable floppy disc drive

Zip Drive 250

Headphones, some with microphones

For outside circulation:

Digital cameras

Digital video cameras

Webcams

Digital Voice Recorders

Microphones

White board markers and erasers are also available for check-out and we have just received two rolling whiteboards that will be available soon for general in-library use. These two whiteboards will not need to be checked out and can be used on a first come, first serve basis.
