Office of Public Safety receives grant for in-car cameras

APRIL 19, 2016

The Georgia Southern University Office of Public Safety has received a grant for $10,000 from the Governor's Office of Highway Safety, with which the department has purchased Watchguard 4RE in-car camera systems for additional patrol vehicles. The purchase of in-car camera systems ensures the standard of all patrol vehicles having in-car camera systems.

"The in-car camera system we implemented last fall has proven to be an invaluable tool for our officers, and provides peace of mind to our community through a practice of transparency. With the department adding new vehicles to the patrol fleet, we wanted to continue the standard of having cameras in every car and on every officer."

This grant comes after the Office received a grant for body cameras for all officers on the force and in-car cameras for marked patrol cars in fall 2015. Georgia Southern's police department was the first public safety force in Bulloch County to incorporate body cameras and in-car recording systems into the daily work of its officers.
