STATESBORO, Ga. – Day one of the 2018 Sun Belt Outdoor Conference Championships concluded Friday evening with the Eagles setting themselves up for prime scoring opportunities Saturday. Events will begin at 9:00 AM EST and continue throughout the entire day with the 3000 Meter Steeplechase concluding the evening at 8:55 PM.

The Eagles began the 2018 Outdoor Championships in the Hammer Throw event. Aundria Douglas posted a 42.15m throw in the event on her second of three attempts. The score was able to secure a top-20 finish for the Eagles and give the Blue and White some momentum heading into the second half of the day. Two Eagles raced in the 1500 meter prelims with Sholonda Snell collecting a top-15 finish. In the 200 meter dash prelims, Beyunka Foster posted a 25.44 second result in the second heat.

Saturday events will include Long Jump, 800 Meters, High Jump, Discus, 100 Meter Hurdles, 400 Meters, 100 Meters, and 800 Meters. Competition will begin at 9:00 AM and continue throughout the day on ESPN3 and live results can be found on the Sun Belt Conference website.
