Dual Enrollment Students

- Collaboration with dual enrollment teaching faculty & high school librarians
- Instruction can be offered at the high school or on the college campus
- Fall 2015: 1062 students, 102 classes, 8 surrounding counties, 13 high schools/centers
- Goals - Stronger rapport with:
 - Office of Dual Enrollment
 - Henrico County Public High School librarians (College Readiness Library Task Force)

Advanced College Academy Students

- Reynolds CC program provides HS students the opportunity to earn an associate degree.
- Currently four participating area high schools
- Initiatives with ACA program:
 - Orientation session & tour for ACA students & parents
 - Mobile scavenger hunt using iPads
 - Source deck card activities

Visit with Hermitage HS Seniors

- Hermitage HS librarian:

- Approval from administration
- Discussed plans with HS English faculty & College Counselor
- Scheduled and confirmed dates/times

- Reynolds CC librarians:

- Planned presentation:
College Libraries & Research: Top 10 Things to Expect
- Met with HS seniors - All day event:
6 sessions, 13 classes, 400 students

Panel Discussion at HS Librarians Meeting

- Academic librarians from area 2 & 4 year colleges & universities were invited to a Henrico County Public School Librarians meeting.
- Shared college level research assignments and what's covered in library instruction sessions.
- Panel discussion on what specific research & knowledge are expected of college freshmen, collaborative initiatives with high schools, and plans for the future.

Local, State & National Conferences

- Invite partners to attend school library and academic library conferences
- Co-present sessions on collaborative initiatives:
 - Virginia Association of School Librarians (VAASL) Spring Regional Conference & statewide conference
 - Today's session

College Readiness Library Task Force

- Review high school/college collaborations nationwide.
- Research grant opportunities.
- Develop organized plan for building district level college collaborations.
- Compare current HCPS high school research with local college research.
- Develop plan to narrow discrepancies & disseminate findings to teachers & administrators.
- Establish & disseminate guidelines for high school level information literacy instruction
- Long-term goal to fully prepare all HCPS graduates for college level research.

Future Plans

- Reynolds 2022 Strategic Plan: One goal is to “Build partnerships with regional school systems that increase the college and career readiness of high school students through collaboration between K-12 and college faculty”
- Created a College Readiness Task Force comprised of high school and academic librarians
- Invite partners to library events
- Continue to collaborate on & co-present sessions at school library and academic library conferences

How to Begin

- Partner up with librarians, teaching faculty and administrators within your constituencies
- Brainstorm, plan, develop & implement initiatives that serve the needs of both high school & college students and are feasible for all parties involved.
- Gather data & share w/ stakeholders to garner support.
