Quickly: The Eagles (3-2-1) bounced back from last Tuesday's loss at top-ranked Wake Forest to pick up a 5-3 win on the road at Jacksonville last Saturday. The Eagles trailed the Dolphins, 3-1, in the second half but scored four unanswered goals to take the match. Senior Javier Carbonell tallied four goals, becoming the first GS men's soccer player to notch four goals in a match since 1999. ETSU (3-4) started the 2018 season 0-3, but has since won three of its last four matches. This will be the first meeting in school history between the two teams.
