Grants, Budget and Timing

Question(s):

How will grants conforming to old policies be grandfathered into the new university?

Rationale:

Multiple faculty have expressed concerns that grants established pre-consolidation that conformed to policies on overload pay were not approved in the new university after much of the work had been completed. This is not an incentive to apply for new grants, which enhance our university's visibility and advance our research profile.

Response:

h. RFI on Grants

Carl Reiber (Provost) stated that most federal and state grants are prescribed. They are outlined in the RFA, and we adhere to those guidelines.
