Newsroom

December 16, 2015

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/newsroom

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation
Georgia Southern University, "Newsroom" (2015). Newsroom. 675.
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/newsroom/675

This article is brought to you for free and open access by the Office of Strategic Communications & Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsroom by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Georgia Southern’s accreditation is reaffirmed

DECEMBER 16, 2015

Interim University President Jean E. Bartels, Ph.D., R.N. announced today that at the Dec. 6 meeting of its Board of Trustees, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) reaffirmed the full accreditation of Georgia Southern University through the year 2025. The University’s accreditation was reaffirmed with “no recommendations,” a gratifying confirmation of the SACSCOC’s highest confidence in Georgia Southern.

“This is an important milestone for our University and could not have happened without the commitment, hard work and expertise of the faculty and staff at Georgia Southern,” said Bartels. “Our thanks go out to all who contributed not only to our reaffirmation self-study and on-site reaffirmation visit, but to the development of our culture of assessment for ongoing academic and institutional improvement.”

In addition, the University received full approval for the implementation of our Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP), Georgia Southern! Eagles! Write! Write! Write!

This positive reaffirmation clearly demonstrates Georgia Southern University’s ongoing commitment to the highest level of academic quality and signifies that the University has met the rigorous standards of educational quality and institutional effectiveness set forth by the SACSCOC.

The SACSCOC is the regional body for the accreditation of degree-granting higher education institutions in the Southern states.

Georgia Southern University, a public Carnegie Doctoral/Research University founded in 1906, offers more than 125 degree programs serving more than 20,500 students. Through eight colleges, the University offers bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degree programs built on more than a century of academic achievement. Georgia Southern is recognized for its student-centered and hands-on approach to education. Visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu