Office of Marketing and Communications wins Communicator awards

MAY 26, 2017

The Office of Marketing and Communications at Georgia Southern University has won three 2017 Communicator Awards for writing and design.

Ascension, the University's research magazine, won the Award of Excellence for writing, the organization's highest award level. Additionally, Ascension won an Award of Distinction for overall design. The office also won an Award of Distinction for the President's Box Invitation to the 2016 Georgia Southern football games.

"Creating materials that tell the important stories and accomplishments at this University in a way that is compelling and attracts attention helps us achieve our goal of advancing the University's brand," said Jan Bond, associate vice president of the Office of Marketing and Communications. "These awards are a testament to the dedication our team puts forth to ensure our brand is at its
