Susan Orlean, September 27th at Georgia Southern University's Armstrong Center

September 13, 2019

September 27, 2019 | 7:30 – 9:30 P.M.

Armstrong Center at Georgia Southern University Savannah, Georgia

This event is FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Please call us at (912) 478-5555 or visit the event form to RSVP.

While an RSVP is optional, having the confirmation page will guarantee your seat at the presentation.

Join journalist and author Susan Orlean for this special presentation brought to you by the 2020 Georgia International Conference on Information Literacy.

She will take attendees through The Library Book, her latest, best-selling novel and Reese Witherspoon's January book of the month. The story follows the Los Angeles Public Library, its memories and patrons, and the importance of libraries in our own lives.

After the presentation, attendees will get the chance to ask questions during the Q&A and attend a book signing with the author!

This event is sponsored by Georgia Southern Continuing Education and Georgia International Conference on Information Literacy.
