NEW FOR 2017
In order to reduce the number of different prices throughout Allen E. Paulson Stadium and lessen any confusion during the purchase process, the Ticket Office has made some updates to the football season ticket prices. It's important to note that 2017 season ticket prices have not increased!
• Season ticket prices have decreased in seven sections: Stadium Club, Bishop Club, sections D, C&E (with backs) and B&F (with backs).

• Due to the lower ticket prices in both Stadium Club and Bishop Club, the minimum Eagle Fund donation requirement has increased to $2,000 for the 2017 season in order to sustain the benefits offered in these areas.

• Family Plan sections have been relocated to sections OO & PP from sections JJ & KK. This change was made to ensure a fair and balanced pricing structure across the stadium. In addition, this allows families better access, and a vantage point, to the Field of Dreams.

Family Plan tickets will remain $75 each with a minimum purchase requirement of 2 season tickets. 2016 season ticket holders in sections JJ & KK will have the option to stay in their location for the 2017 season but will need to pay the new season ticket price of $135 per ticket. If not, they will have first priority to move to the new Family Plan sections located in OO & PP.

The Ticket Office has worked hard to assure minimal overall price changes for our season ticket holders. All in all, less than 1% of Eagle Nation will see an increase to their overall payment while 28% will actually see a decrease in their cost (this statistic excludes Family Plan sections, as they were relocated).
