Poem of Thanks

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

We want to say thank you for all your prayers, cards, and visits. Sometimes, we can tell people we love them. And at other times, we can show our love which is even better. Earl was truly touched knowing that he was loved by many he had come to know.

Psalm 23

¹The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. ²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. ³He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. ⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me. ⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. ⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Reflection of Earl Berry's Life

Earl Eugene Berry was born on July 6, 1965 to Earl Murray (deceased) and Josephine Berry (deceased). On Wednesday, March 14, 2012, Earl went to be with the Lord.

Earl was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and cousin to many. There was not anyone that Earl would turn away, or anything that he would not do to help a person in need. He was a strong person with a big heart, and his presence impacted all.

Earl loved the outdoors. He always wanted to live in the country. He enjoyed fishing, camping, planting flowers, and growing fruits and vegetables.

As a young boy, Earl took up riding motorbikes as a hobby. Then as he got older, his mother showed him a picture of a man standing near a truck - DODSON TRUCKING. It turned out that the man was a great-uncle. That picture truly inspired him to drive an 18-wheeler truck. At which time, he became the proud owner of his own trucks. His inspiration to drive trucks has passed on to his children: Candice and Earl Jr.

At an early age, Earl was baptized at First Baptize Church in W. College Hill. He has been an active member of Third Presbyterian Church in East Westwood. In 2009, Earl co-founded the Men's Breakfast Ministry of the Third Presbyterian Church. The ministry helps young men to identify their dreams and goals; work together to achieve them; and to guide them on the road to becoming men of Christ.

Earl leaves to celebrate his life: Mischelle Kelley-Berry, his wife; four daughters: Candice Lynn Berry, Kiyana Deann Wilkins, Sonja Lynea Berry, Breana Josephine Berry; two sons: Earl Paul Berry (E.J., Eli, L'Rae, Ava), James Joseph Berry; three sisters: Christine Berry, Angela Ward, Amy Berry; and two brothers: Lawrence (Larry) Berry and Darva Shaw. He, also, leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
