*Tell me not in mournful numbers
Life is but an empty dream
But the soul is dead that slumbers, and things are not what they seem.*

*Life is real, life is earnest,
and the grave is not its goal Dust thou art to dust returned was not spoken of the soul.*

*Art is long and time is fleeting and the dear heart stout and brave,
Still like muffled drums are beating Funeral marches to the grave.*

*The lives of great men all around us we can make our lives sublive
And departing leaves behind us footprints in the sands of time.*

APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sang a lovely song
Or sat quietly in a chair

Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers
If so, we saw them there.

Perhaps you sent or spoke kind words
As any friends can say;

Perhaps you were not there at all
Just thought of us that day.

Perhaps you prepared some tasty food
Or maybe furnished a car;

Perhaps you rendered a service unseen
Near at hand or from afar,

Whatever you did to console the heart
We thank you so much—whatever the part.
