Game Preview: Eagles rekindle rivalry with former FCS foe

History: Georgia Southern and Marshall have met six times on the gridiron, with the Thundering Herd holding a 4-2 lead in the all-time series.

Last Week: The Eagles traveled to Louisiana on Thursday for a pivotal conference game against the Ragin' Cajuns, but ultimately fell to UL, 36-17.

The Cajuns dominated the Eagles on the back of a rushing attack that resulted in 242 total yards on an average of over six yards per carry. However, quarterback Ben Woolridge reaped the benefits of his team's rushing attack and ended three drives with a passing touchdown.

Scouting Report: Marshall prides themselves on being a defensive team, it is as simple as that.

The Thundering Herd rank within the top-10 in total defense, but have been truly exceptional against the ground game, allowing the third least rushing yards per game in all of FBS. They also have a top-30 turnover margin in all of football.

Offensively, things have been a struggle for the Thundering Herd, who average just 23.9 points per game. Khalan Laborn leads a strong rushing game and has accounted for 14 of the team's 29 total touchdowns.

Bottom Line: Per usual, the Eagles will need to do the majority of their work offensively through the air. However, with a handful of receivers done for the year, Kyle Vantrease will be forced to find new targets.

Defensively, GS must find a way to stop the ground game, which is something they have been able to do all season.

Prediction: GS finds a way to win a 20-17 war

Helpful Hints: Dealing with Exam Stress

Dealing with Exam Stress

- Get up early to get a head start 1
- Plan the next day before you go to bed. Having your plan in place allows you to get a quick start on your morning routine. 2
- Use Positive Daily Affirmations such as "I got this!" 3
- Get lots of rest and take breaks. You are more creative and productive if you get enough rest and take small breaks throughout the day. 4
- Finish all of your work before the deadline! 5

The Reflector Magazine dropped yesterday morning, November 16, at the Rotunda. Students came by and picked up their copy, including Morgan McCullough who modeled for the “Pretty in Pink” spread.

Meet Java!

"He is a Holland Lop bunny and only weighs about 3 lbs, so he's pretty small," said owner Genesis Campbell. "He loves to eat his veggies every morning. He does zoomies when he's happy, and he loves to snack on bananas. He always knows how to cheer me up, and I love him with all my heart!"
