STATESBORO, GA. – Georgia Southern Athletics hosts its Spring Sports Fan Fest on Saturday, February 4th. The 2017 event will be held at an upgraded J.I. Clements Stadium and features a baseball scrimmage, autograph session with Eagle spring sport student-athletes and an on-field Baseball kid's clinic. The action starts at 10 a.m. with the kid's clinic set for 12:30 p.m.

Fans will get one of their first chances to see the 2017 Georgia Southern Baseball team in action with an intrasquad scrimmage starting at 10 a.m. During the scrimmage, kids can play on inflatable games on the concourse. The day will also be a chance for fans to pick up their 2017 spring sport posters and schedule cards.

The Georgia Southern Athletics Ticket Office will be on hand selling season tickets, allowing fans to select their seat for the 2017 season and distributing previously purchased season tickets. Food will be available for purchase from the stadium's concession stand.

Georgia Southern's spring sports student-athletes from softball, men's golf, swimming and diving, track and field and rifle will be signing autographs starting at noon on the stadium's main concourse.

After the team's scrimmage, which is slated to finish at 12:30 p.m., Eagle Baseball will hold a free kid's clinic on the field. Baseball student-athletes will work with youngsters age 6-12 on the diamond. Participants will receive a free ticket for the Georgia Southern Men's and Women's Basketball doubleheader that afternoon against ULM and are eligible for sports equipment door prizes which will be awarded following the clinic.

Participants are strongly encouraged to register in advance for the clinic. Visit GSEagles.com/LittleEaglesBaseball to pre-register your child.

Immediately following the kid's clinic, the Georgia Southern Baseball team will sign autographs on the concourse. The field will also be open for fans to get an up close view of the new Blue Monster. Fans can take their picture on the field and explore the updated home of Georgia Southern Baseball.

Schedule of Events
