What you should know when voting in the runoff election

If you're registered to vote, you can vote in this year's runoff election.

What's new: You did not have to vote in the Nov. 8 General Election to vote in the runoff.

- Anyone who is registered to vote in Georgia can vote in the runoff elections. However, It's too late to register now for those who aren't already registered.

Voting by mail in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote by absentee ballot, here's what you should know.

What's new: Absentee ballots must be returned by Dec. 6.

- The deadline to request an absentee ballot has already passed. If you missed the deadline, you will need to vote in person.
 - Completed ballots can be returned in person or by mail and must include your driver's license or state ID number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number on the outside of the envelope.
 - Log into My Voter Page for drop box locations or hand-deliver your ballot to your county election office on Election Day. If you choose to return your ballot by mail, you must mail your ballot at least seven days before the election to ensure it arrives on time.
 - All ballots must arrive at your county elections office by 7 p.m. on Election Day.

Voting early in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote early, here's what you should know.

What's new: You can vote before Election Day.

- You can only vote in your precinct.
 - Early in-person voting is available to all registered voters from Nov. 28 through Dec. 2. However, some counties may offer it sooner. Check with polling locations in your county by visiting <https://elections.sos.ga.gov/Elections/countyregistrars.do>

Voting in-person on Election Day in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote in person on Tuesday, Dec. 6, here's what you should know.

What's new: Polls will be open on Election Day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- You can only vote in your precinct. Visit <https://mvp.sos.ga.gov/s/> or contact your county elections office <https://elections.sos.ga.gov/Elections/countyregistrars.do> to confirm your polling location.
 - You must bring a valid photo ID. More information regarding appropriate forms of identification can be found at <https://sos.ga.gov/page/georgia-voter-identification-requirements>.

Today's issue: Voting rights

Get to know Warnock and Walker's stance on voting rights.

- Walker: "Walker has said he would oppose federal voting rights protection, including the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act," according to GPB.
- Warnock: "Warnock has been an outspoken advocate for federal voting rights protections and has urged colleagues to pass legislation like the Freedom to Vote Act and John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act," according to GPB.
