One Little Rose

*I would rather have one little rose
From the garden of a friend
Than to have the choicest flowers
When my stay on earth must end.*

*I would rather have one pleasant word
In kindness said to me
Than flattery when my heart is still
And life has ceased to be.*

*I would rather have one loving smile
From friends, I know are true
Than tears shed'round my casket
When this world I've bid adien.*

*Bring me all my flowers today
Whether white, or pink, or red.
I'd rather have one blossam now
Than a truckload when I'am dead.*

OBITUARY

On Thursday morning, March 30, 1983, the angel of the Lord came to earth to claim the life of Jennie L. Boone at 12:12 a.m. Knowing that she had suffered enough, God in His infinite wisdom called her home to rest.

Jennie was born in Ronco, Pennsylvania on April 6, 1927. She was parented by the late Soloman and Agnes Moore of Statesboro, Georgia.

She attended the Statesboro Industrial High School of Statesboro and the Spellman University of Atlanta, Georgia. She also attended the Pierce Junior College of Business in Philadelphia.

While yet in Georgia, Jennie accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at an early age at the First African Baptist Church, the Rev. W. D. Kent, Pastor, and was active in the Sunday School, B.Y.P.U., sang on the choir and served on the Usher Board.

She came to Philadelphia to live while in her early twenties. She lived at that time with her sister and brother-in-law, Ann and Norman Boykin. It was then that she joined the Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, 57th and Race Streets under the pastorate of the late Rev. D. W. Haggard. She sang on the Mt. Carmel Choir for several years.

Jennie also served as the Block Committee Chairman in the 5900 block of Sansom Street in West Philadelphia until she was unable to serve because of ill health.

Jennie was a mild mannered person who seldom grew angry. She was always ready and willing to help others who needed her services. She was loved by all who knew her and has said that she had lived a good life and if the Lord was ready to call her home, she was ready to go.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Mr. Charles L. Boone on May 8, 1946. God richly blessed this union with two wonderful sons, much love, and understanding.

Left to share her sweet memory are two sons, Charles, Jr. and Ronald, one granddaughter, Pamela, one daughter-in-law, Hazel; four sisters, Anna M. Boykin of Philadelphia; Ruby D. Broach of Statesboro, Bernice Moore of Jamaica, New York and Verlie Bethea of Philadelphia; one brother Lester Moore also of Philadelphia; a mother-in-law, Doshia Boone of Philadelphia; two sisters-in-law, Mildred Moore and Jessie Moore, both of Philadelphia; three brothers-in-law, Norman I Boykin of Philadelphia, Hilbert Broch of Statesboro and Edward Bethea of Philadelphia; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. Marion Grimes as a neighbor and a good friend.
