What you should know when voting in the runoff election

If you're registered to vote, you can vote in this year's runoff election.

What's new: You did not have to vote in the Nov. 8 General Election to vote in the runoff.

- Anyone who is registered to vote in Georgia can vote in the runoff elections. However, It's too late to register now for those who aren't already registered.

Voting by mail in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote by absentee ballot, here's what you should know.

What's new: Absentee ballots must be returned by Dec. 6.

- The deadline to request an absentee ballot has already passed. If you missed the deadline, you will need to vote in person.
- Completed ballots can be returned in person or by mail and must include your driver's license or state ID number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number on the outside of the envelope.
- Log into My Voter Page for drop box locations or hand-deliver your ballot to your county election office on Election Day. If you choose to return your ballot by mail, you must mail your ballot at least seven days before the election to ensure it arrives on time.
- All ballots must arrive at your county elections office by 7 p.m. on Election Day.

TAKE CONTROL
VOTE BY DECEMBER 6

When we all show up,
we can take control of our lives and our futures.

Today's issue: LGBTQ rights

Get to know Warnock and Walker's stance on LGBTQ rights.

- Walker: Walker is in favor of limiting LGBTQ rights. "Gay marriage should be determined by each state," said Walker. When asked about transgender athletes he said "It's written in the Bible...you have two [sexes], there's a man and a woman and that's it," According to Teen Vogue.
- Warnock: Warnock is in favor of expanding LGBTQ rights. "I'm a proud ally of the LGBTQ+ community," he said according to Teen Vogue. He cosponsored the Equality Act, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.
