What you should know when voting in the runoff election

If you're registered to vote, you can vote in this year's runoff election.

What's new: You did not have to vote in the Nov. 8 General Election to vote in the runoff.

- Anyone who is registered to vote in Georgia can vote in the runoff elections. However, It's too late to register now for those who aren't already registered.

Voting by mail in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote by absentee ballot, here's what you should know.

What's new: Absentee ballots must be returned by Dec. 6.

- The deadline to request an absentee ballot has already passed. If you missed the deadline, you will need to vote in person.
- Completed ballots can be returned in person or by mail and must include your driver's license or state ID number, or the last four digits of your Social Security number on the outside of the envelope.
- Log into My Voter Page for drop box locations or hand-deliver your ballot to your county election office on Election Day. If you choose to return your ballot by mail, you must mail your ballot at least seven days before the election to ensure it arrives on time.

- All ballots must arrive at your county elections office by 7 p.m. on Election Day.

Voting early in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote early, here's what you should know.

- Early voting is no longer available. The last day to early vote was Dec. 2.

Voting in-person on Election Day in the Senate Runoff

If you want to vote in person on Tuesday, Dec. 6, here's what you should know.

What's new: Polls will be open on Election Day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

- You can only vote at your precinct. Visit <https://mvp.sos.ga.gov/s/> or contact your county elections office <https://elections.sos.ga.gov/Elections/countyregistrars.do> to confirm your polling location.
 - You must bring a valid photo ID. More information regarding appropriate forms of identification can be found at <https://sos.ga.gov/page/georgia-voter-identification-requirements>.
 - If you are in line at 7 p.m. you will still be allowed to vote.
 - Voters with disabilities may move to the front of the line if they arrive at their polling place between 9:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and notify election workers.

Today's issue: Student financial aid

Get to know Warnock and Walker's stance on lowering interest on student loans.

- Regarding student loan forgiveness, Walker said, “I didn’t co-sign for anyone’s load and it’s not right. It’s not fair,” According to Teen Vogue.
- Warnock is in full support of forgiving student loans. “I pushed the President to do student debt relief.” “We need reform because college is outpacing the cost of everything else,” According to Teen Vogue
