The Challenge...
A Solution...
In the Spirit of SOTL…

- “I love being able to get up at 5 am while the kids are still asleep and do my work…I’ll read a few links here and then go do dishes.”

- “…I realized that videos that are even 10-15 minutes long feel SUPER long….I’m being tempted by a million other things for my attention.”

- “I find that I’m sometimes falling into the trap of just wanting to get it done (the work).”

- “I’m finding that predictability of the expectations of me is nice – and I think I need to do a better job of that as a teacher.”
Yellow: Anytime, anywhere learning.
Salmon: Organization online.
Blue: Mobile devices.
Orange: Creating community.
