NORFOLK, VA. – Georgia Southern Swimming & Diving is among a record breaking group of programs to be named Scholar All-American by the College Swimming and Diving Coaches Association of America (CSCAA). The Eagles posted a 3.31 team GPA in the Fall 2016 semester. In total, 638 teams from 394 institutions earned the honor.

"Doing well in the classroom is something that is very important to our program," said

Head Coach Laura Thomas. "We have a team goal of a 3.50 so we still have some work to do in the classroom, but we will get there."

To be selected as a CSCAA Scholar All-America Team, programs must have achieved a grade point average of 3.00 or higher over the fall semester.

Founded in 1922, the College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) – the oldest organization of college coaches in America -is a professional organization of college swimming and diving coaches dedicated to serving and providing leadership for the advancement of the sport of swimming & diving at the collegiate level.

Georgia Southern Swimming & Diving visits Davidson this weekend for a quad meet in the North Carolina piedmont. Liberty and Gardner-Webb will also be in attendance for the final regular season meet before the CCSA Championships in February.
