"This past weekend helped us to realize just how tenacious we are as a whole," said head coach Michele Stanford. "Presbyterian is always a great team to compete against, and we are very eager to start out strong against them tomorrow. We know that the Blue Hose will put up a tough fight, but our team is ready for the challenge."

LAST TIME OUT

Last time out the Eagles competed against Alabama State and SCAD. They finished the weekend 2-0 defeating ASU 5-2 and SCAD 4-3. The Eagles were able to go ahead of the Hornets 5-0 before surrendering to late points. Ella Monsey set the tone in singles play defeating her opponent in straight sets. Against SCAD the Eagles jumped out to an early 3-1 lead, before SCAD was able to even the score at 3-3. Emilia Bujan was able to clinch the victory, defeating her opponent 5-7, 6-1, 6-4.
