STATESBORO, Ga.—Georgia Southern's Athletic Director Tom Kleinlein answers all of Eagle Nation's questions in the February edition of "Ask TK" with the Voice of the Eagles Danny Reed.

During this episode, Kleinlein touches on a variety of topics, including the success of the spring sports, specifically women's golf, softball and baseball. With the growth of college baseball across the nation, Kleinlein discusses how the recent renovations and plans for the Sun Belt Tournament will set the standard for the rest of the league. In addition to the baseball renovations, Kleinlein talks about the changes made to Hanner and how the fans contribute to the success of the basketball programs.

TK also highlights National Signing Day and the strong comradery held among the football community, especially when welcoming back alumni for events such as the EFAA Reverse Raffle.

The next episode of "Ask TK" will wrap up the basketball season and the rest of the winter sports. Fans can submit their questions via Twitter by using the hashtag #AskTK.
