MURRAY, Ky. - Georgia Southern Rifle opened the 2017-18 season with a pair of school records against the No. 3 Murray State Racers on Saturday morning. The match opened a weekend double which will conclude on Sunday against UT Martin.

The Eagles bested the small bore school record which was set twice last season and posted a new aggregate mark by a point. Freshman Lily Wade tied junior Rosemary Kramer on Saturday with a 1135 aggregate. Wade's 580 on the air rifle ranks as the No. 4 all-time score at Georgia Southern on that firearm. Kramer finished her air rifle shoot with a perfect 100 series including back-to-back perfect 10.9 scores.

QUOTABLES

Head Coach Sandra Worman

"Our Eagle Eyes really worked hard in practice and strengthened their mental skill set to a compelling degree. They bested the small bore and aggregate school records to start the season. Tomorrow's match will be on paper targets that will require extra tools from their mental arsenal. They are ready for Sunday's challenge at UT Martin."
