Georgia Southern University's Botanical Garden will host its annual Wine, Moonlight and Magnolias Benefit on Thursday, April 21, 2011.

"Our Wine, Moonlight and Magnolias Benefit has become one of the most anticipated events of the spring season," said Botanical Garden Director Carolyn Altman. "This is a wonderful chance to mingle under the stars on a warm spring evening surrounded by the beauty of our garden, and all proceeds go to benefit the garden's horticultural and educational programs."

The evening will begin at 7 p.m. at the Botanical Garden, located at 1505 Bland Avenue. The event features hundreds of wines to taste and sumptuous hors d'oeuvres featuring Southern foods with a "twist." Entertainment will be provided by Charleston piano jazz musician Jesse Cockcroft.

Tickets are $45 per person through April 17th and $55 after April 17, and are available by calling 871-1149 with a major credit card. Attendees must be 21 or older.
