STATESBORO, Ga. – After clinching a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament, the Eagles will head to Troy, Alabama for the final regular season match of the year. The match was originally scheduled for October 8th, but was changed due to the threat of Hurricane Nate.

The Eagles currently sit in 6th place with 13 points on the season and are facing off against Troy who currently sits in 4th place with 15 points. Due to holding the tiebreaker over Arkansas State the Eagles can move as high as 3rd place to finish the season. The Eagles are coming off of a victory on senior day where they defeated ULM 2-0 to clinch a spot in the tournament.

Frida Brattum continues to lead the Eagles with 5 goals and 2 assists on the year. Lauren Karinshak posted her fifth clean-sheet of the year and has improved her record to 7-6-1 on the season. Her latest shutout helped the Eagles clinch a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament for the first time since 2015.
