STATESBORO – Emma Longley tallied 22 kills, and Courtney Sullivan added 20 to lead Appalachian State to a 3-2 (25-20, 23-25, 21-25, 25-20, 15-13) Sun Belt Conference volleyball victory over Georgia Southern Friday night in Hanner Fieldhouse.

Cathrine Murray posted 14 kills, 15 digs and four blocks for the Eagles (7-19, 3-11), while Lauren Reichard added 12 kills and five blocks. Skylar Ball notched 11 kills and two blocks, and Landon Jones finished with 27 assists and 22 digs.

Ashlyn Brown collected 59 assists and 17 digs for Appalachian State (10-17, 5-8), while Cassidy Stephenson and Lexi Kohut each recorded nine kills.

The story

Ball and Murray had kills as GS rallied from a 13-9 deficit to tie the score in the fifth and final set. Sullivan made it match point with a kill, and Longley finished things off with a kill.

GS led the match 2-1 after winning the third set and trailed 18-17 after a kill by Ball. App scored the next three points in a 4-1 run and opened a 22-18 lead on a Stephenson kill. Reichard got a kill for the Eagles, but the Mountaineers outscored GS 3-1 the rest of the way to force the fifth.

Georgia Southern outhit App .272 to .184 and held the edge in blocks and digs but could not find a way to get past the Mountaineers.

Quotable from head coach Dustin Wood

“We're hitting .272 as a team, and in the locker room, and I know some of our kids are pretty hard on themselves, especially ones that had the opportunity to make some plays and didn't. So, I'm anxious to see how we come out next week."

"I'd rather them be aggressive and lose then be tentative. I told them before the fifth to be aggressive, and I thought we were being aggressive when we fought back but when it got to 13-13, we got tentative. I'm confident in this group, and I think we're playing our best volleyball at the right time, now we just have to finish."
