Referendum Slated February 23, 24

by Steve Hartley

On Wednesday, February 16, there will be a referendum concerning 5 amendments to the Armstrong Student Government Constitution. These amendments are:

- 1) Creating a night student Senator
- 2) Changing the SGA elections for President to the end of Winter Quarter.
- 3) Changing the SGA elections for Senators from Spring Quarter to the end of Winter Quarter.

Senate Meeting Held

The Senate meeting was called to order by Steve Hartley, president pro-tem of the Senate.

It is the recommendation of the Senate Rules Committee that the time of SGA elections be changed from Spring Quarter to the end of Winter Quarter. This change would coordinate our election with those of other institutions around Georgia. Also, it will allow for more sufficient indoctrination of incoming SGA officers. Elections will be held at the end of Winter Quarter before exams, and the officers will take office as usual, at the end of Spring Quarter.

Therefore I move that:

1. Article II, section 1, clause B be amended so as to read:

"3. This selection shall be held no later than the second Tuesday in March."

2. that Article III, section 4, clause A be amended so as to read:

"A. . . all Senators will be elected in the Winter Elections which shall be held no later than the 2nd Tuesday in March."

Candidates qualifications requirements must also be changed. I suggest that the necessary hours be fulfilled by the end of Winter Quarter.

Steve Hartley
Second; The Hon. David Dorondo

Credit Given J. Persse

In the last issue of the Inkwell, an interview was printed on Leonard Nimoy. By accident, the name of the author who conducted and wrote the interview was omitted in the paper. Credit must be given to James Persse, who did a fine job.

4) Changing the credit-hour qualifications for president

5) Changing the credit-hour qualifications for vice-president

The first proposal, the representation of the night students on the Student Senate, is long overdue. These students have been paying over twenty dollars per quarter in activity, health and athletic fees and receiving absolutely no benefits from these. Representation on the Senate is the first step in giving the night students their fair share of Student Government benefits.

The second proposed amendment concerns changing the times of the elections from Spring Quarter to the end of Winter Quarter. This will coordinate our elections of those with most other schools across the state. Our newly elected officers will then be able to prepare their programs, and also be able to attend conferences in the Spring with other school officers.

The third proposal is almost necessary if the elections are changed to Winter Quarter. If the proposed amendment fails, the credit hour qualification will remain at 75 hours by the end of fall quarter. The average student will have 45 hours by the end of his freshman year, plus 15 additional hours at the end of the fall quarter of his sophomore year. This is a total of 60 hours, and therefore, most sophomores will not be able to run for an office, which they would hold as juniors. This means that the officers of the SGA will be predominately seniors. Also, many other interested students will be disqualified from running for office. This proposed amendment would lower the qualifications to fifty hours, to allow students who are interested in running for an SGA office to take a remedial course for which he would receive no credit; repeat a course in his major, if he did not do as well as he thought he could; and also allow the student some room should he fail or drop a class.

Please vote yes in the referendum on Wednesday, Feb. 16. It's your Student Government, so voice your opinion.

The Armstrong Pirates defeated West Georgia 95 to 80 in the Savannah Civic Center Saturday night, February 5 to take the lead in the South Atlantic Conference.

West Georgia held a very slight lead during most of the first half, but the Pirates moved ahead in the last five minutes of the first half to take the lead 44 to 37 at the half. Armstrong increased its lead in the second half to win 95 to 80.

High scorer for Armstrong was Crow Armstrong with 30 points, followed by Dennis Davis with 22, and Henry T. Wright with 19.

During the half time activities, cheerleaders from Groves, Thompkins, and Calvary Baptist competed for a cheerleader scholarship. The winner was Linda Broussard of Calvary. The Calvary Baptist cheerleader squad was also presented with a spirit stick. Additional halftime entertainment was provided by the Little League Drill Team and the Armstrong Pep Band.

B.A.M. Contest Scheduled Feb. 18

by Charles Flournoy

The evening of the Friday, February 18, at 8:00 P.M. will bring the Fourth Annual Pageant of the Black American Movement to the ASC campus. It promises to be an evening of excitement for some very talented young women who will demonstrate their talents as well as their enchanting personalities. Participants in this coveted event will be:

Delores D. Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Mills; Debra Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Inez Wilson; Debra M. Samuel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Samuel; Hazel Lene Jones, daughter of Mrs. Corene Warren; Anetha M. Mayes, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Mayes; and Patricia Gilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gilliard.

Mr. Romelle Brown will be the emcee for the occasion. Mr. Brown is a local disc-jockey for a local radio station. He is accompanied by judges; Mrs. Priscilla Thomas, who is the primary judge and is the principal of Haven Elementary School and has been on the nationally televised shows "To Tell the Truth; Mr. Benjamin Tucker, owner and general manager of W.S.O.K., Inc.; Ms. Judy Fields, founder of the Sunshine House, and; Mr. Gus Howard, director of Public Relations at SSC and also sponsors a locally televised program.

Together they will work hard to make a seemingly impossible decision as to who will wear the coveted crown to be Miss B.A.M. for 1977. An additional pleasantry for the winner will be a stipend to assist in her educational pursuits in the form of a scholarship.

It is worth mentioning that those in attendance will have an opportunity to see some great entertainment. Delores Mills will perform a monologue, Debra Wilson will sing "Summertime", Debra Samuel will dramatically present "Young, Gifted and Black, Hazel Jones will recite the "Creation"; Anetha Mayes presents "When Melande Sings", and Patricia Gilliard will perform an African Dance.

So all in all it will be an evening of fun and excitement and if you do not go you would have missed it all. Be a good sport and do yourself a favor, too. The whole town will be there. Be There!!!

Spring Festival Considered

The Intramural Council will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, February 22nd; 12:30 in the gymnasium. Council members will discuss preparations for the Spring Festival and attend to other items concerning intramural sports. Interested students are invited to attend.

Lobotomy Rebuttal

Now, Mr. Pendergrast, from a rational standpoint of view, all of this bothers the hell out of me. Your viewpoints on economic socialism miss the mark by a parsec.

Utopia is a mental state, an individual at peace with himself. This internal well-being, if attained, will render your economic socialism useless. If the human race can determine what is important in life then all things will fall in place. Man creates the environment, and not economic socialism create a new man.

The mess this world is in today is an example of how you, like others in the past, have missed the whole point in living.

Jobs, careers, individual initiative, and government cannot create a "happy" individual, but a happy individual can create the physical universe to satisfy his needs.

The important theme in your article should have been "how can we change ourselves to change our environment" instead of the other way around.

This internal well-being, when formed, expresses itself in many forms. One of the major forms is that other people are more important than physical things and with this in mind, I must say, I enjoyed your article.

Fashion 101: Dressing To Flatter Your Figure

Debbie Eason

Clothes and accessories can really make a woman. If you're like me, you weren't born perfect, maybe far from it. But, Heaven only knows we have to take what we've got and do the best with it. Fortunately there's relief to this problem. The idea is illusion and clothes can create this illusion. Here are some fantastic ideas on how to alter your figure without tears or losing a pound.

If you are:

Short, full figured

Choose vertical lines, one color or monotone outfits, open neckline. Avoid contrasting color outfits that "chop" you in two, wide belts or too-long hemlines.

Tiny

Try small-scale patterns, related-color outfits, Empire styles. Steer clear of too-frilly looks, bulky fabrics, overpowering accessories.

Tall, thin figure

You look best in soft silhouettes, two tone outfits, flared tops, wide-leg pants, gathered or pleated skirts. Avoid severely tailored clothes, clingy fabrics.

Statuesque

Look for understated easy-fitting styles. Jacket dresses and coat dresses are good bets. You can wear emphatic accessories well.

Small bosom

Try lighter-colored tops with darker skirts or pants, wrap blouses and dresses, smock tops. Consider a contoured or padded bra. Avoid clingy fabrics.

Short Waisted

Since top and bottom size may not be the same, look for easy-cut dresses. Beltless styles are becoming.

Heavy legs

Pants and longer skirts can be good disguises. Keep fashion interest above the waist, wear simple shoes with enough bulk to balance the leg. Stockings enough bulk to balance the leg. Stockings should match or blend with skirt or dress.

Short Neck

V and oval necklines are best. Avoid turtlenecks. Standup collars, chokers, neck scarves.

Thin neck

Good for you; turtlenecks, cowl necklines, mandarin collars, chokers, neck scarves.

Narrow shoulders

Look for tops or dresses that emphasize shoulder width (spread collars boat necklines, extended shoulders) bodices with easy fullness, avoid raglan sleeves which tend to minimize the shoulders.

Wide hips

Choose an outfit that attracts the eye upward and do balance the figure with tips that add width. Skirts in medium-to-dark tones are good; avoid too tight or too full skirts. Pants should be cut from a natural waistline in no-cling fabrics.

Large bosom

Start with a good bra. V, oval and square necklines are becoming. Choose simply styled tips in no-cling fabrics. Avoid high or fussy necklines.

Narrow hips

When combined with a large bosom, the figure looks top heavy. Skirts with some fullness or attention getting details like a large patch pocket create balance.

Against Referendum

by Mike Tindell

The student senate is asking you to vote a change to the Senate constitution. This change would allow a student with fifty hours completed by the end of the fall quarter preceding campus elections to run for vice president or president of the student government. What's wrong with that? Think about this:

If a student started college in the fall quarter of 1976 with the intention of graduating in June of 1980, and with the intention of attending only three quarters per year, that student would have to carry more than 15 quarter hours per quarter. An average college student therefore would have to carry at least 16 quarter hours to graduate in four years. An ambitious college student could graduate in three years by attending summer quarters also.

The average student then, who started college in the fall quarter of 1976 would have completed at least sixty-four quarter hours by the end of the fall quarter in 1977, one year later. Note that sixty-four quarter hours is required for the merely average student to have completed who intends to graduate in June of 1980. An ambitious student may have completed 80 hours by the end of the same time.

The senate proposal asks that you allow a person who entered college in the fall quarter of 1976 and who has amassed the amazing total of 50 quarter hours by the end of the fall quarter 1977 to run for the office of president or vice president of your student government. In other words, if you are an average student you will be considering a person for executive office of the student government who either has less than average scholastic ability or less than average motivation to graduate; in other words, a mediocre student looking for the glory of political office. Is that really what you want? Think about it before you vote.

AAUP Opposes Regent's Decision

by James Miller

The American Association of University Professors is opposed to a policy by the University System Board of Regents at their January 11-12 meeting, according to Dr. Anne Hudson, the head of the Armstrong AAUP.

The policy adopted by the Board would prohibit employees of the University system from holding public office at the state or federal level, taking an active part in a political campaign, or seeking political office at the state or federal level without requesting a leave of absence without pay prior to announcing his or her candidacy.

Dr. Hudson said that the AAUP will lobby to get the Board of Regents to rescind this decision. In the meantime, she feels that the policy needs clarification, and she wants to know what faculty input, if any, was considered by the Board in formulating this policy.

According to Dr. Hudson, there is no way at present time for the faculty of the University System as a whole to communicate as a body with the Board of Regents. She said that the AAUP would like for there to be a faculty committee similar to the present student committee to provide input to the Board.

In the meantime, Dr. Hudson hopes that faculties throughout the state will issue statements protesting the policy, which she regards as a violation of the professor's civil rights.

Little Theatre Tidbits

by Barbara Lang

My second visit to the Little Theatre presented, even to my somewhat seasoned eyes, the view of a dedicated handful of people polishing up a production which, when you read this, will already have made its debut.

Because of sets and other technical work being downstairs the rehearsal was held upstairs. I could tell: as I entered that the confidence of actors had increased with practice. Only the occasional utterance of the word "line" could one tell that this performance was not for an audience. There was one slip-up, a distressed cry of "Can we start that all over again?" from a dedicated young actress who wants her part down pat for the big moment.

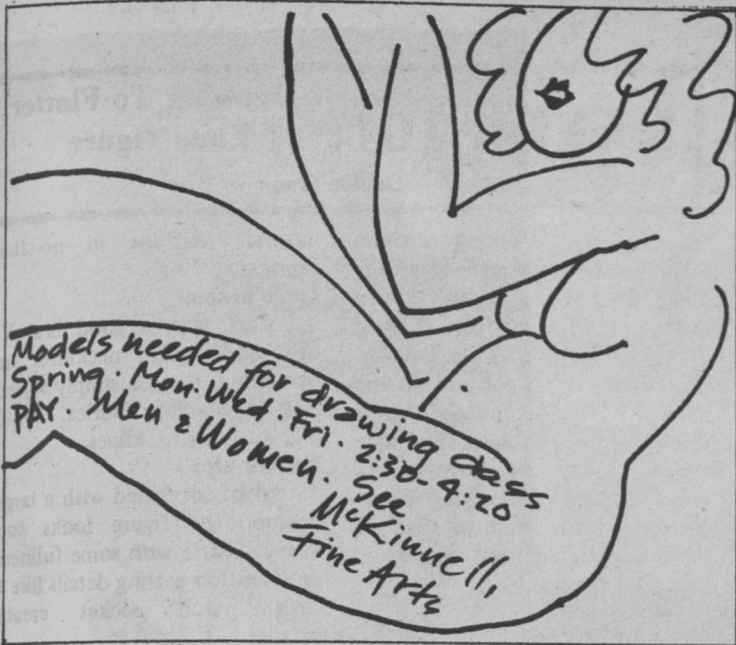

I have ushered for many Little Theatre productions and it never ceases to amaze me how an unprepared group of comparative strangers can surmount all the difficulties of the grinding weeks of preparation for the play and come on stage looking bright as daisies. Although the burden of the outcome of the production falls rightly on the director, Bill Starrs and the players, many people are involved in its reception by the public. If you have seen or intend to see this play, you will come to realize that many dedicated individuals take part in the completed venture.

Mr. Starrs' dog Smokey is the unsung hero of The School for Wives. He attends every rehearsal faithfully. Everyone knows when things are going well - this event being expressed by Smokey's content air and position of comfort at Mr. Starrs' feet. Nothings seems to phase him.

Since it takes humans to produce a play the sole credit will go to them but perhaps no other creature has seen more plays take shape than Smokey and his predecessors. My intent is merely to interest the reader - not to critec the play - and maybe that is all for the best as I would have nothing but complimentary comments about Moliere's School for Wives. I wonder if Moliere's ghost was watching on opening night.

with no one on the bench.

Gail Canady led the Pirates with 16 points, followed by Marie Dotson with 10.

In the consolation game the distaff Pirates bowed to Florida Tech 62-48 with two starters out with injuries.
