Summer Quarter '71 to be Record Breaker

Expansion is a word which will describe Armstrong State College. In the years since Armstrong State College became a four year institution, enrollment has soared from approximately 700 to over 2400 students. Enrollment in the last two years alone has increased 22.1%!

The Summer Quarter at Armstrong State College looks as if it will be a record breaker for the campus. Several new programs have been added to the summer curriculum plus all the regular extra-curricular activities of the college.

Special programs being offered this summer are continuing education courses at both Hunter and Fort Stewart. Armstrong State College will offer a basketball camp for boys 10-18. The camp will be conducted by Armstrong State College head coach Bill Alexander on two sessions, June 21 to 25 and June 28 to July 2.

Bill Horan's American Cheerleading Association will conduct cheerleading classes at the college from August 16 to 20. Classes will be held from 9:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M.

Armstrong State Band Director, Dr. Charles Lawson, will conduct a Band Camp for area high school and junior high schools this summer. The jr. high camp is scheduled for July 19-30 from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M., the high school camp from August 2-13.

Also this summer the college will offer an all day sports camp for boys and girls. Age limits for boys is from 6-14 years for girls from 6-12.

The camp will offer lessons in gymnastics, tumbling, trampoline, basketball, arts, swimming and crafts and various other individual and team events.

Of course, with such greatly increased enrollment, more and more facilities and equipment have been added to answer the needs of the increased student body. Since moving to the present campus with its 7 buildings in 1965, two new classroom buildings, improvements in Science Hall, a large modern student services building, and office space, and conference room space have been added at a cost of over 2 million dollars. Additionally, construction is slated to begin soon on a 2.3 million dollar Fine Arts building. Also, proposals are now being acted upon for a new 2 million dollar library and expansion of the physical education building.

Not only is the college expanding, but so are its students, who are directly expanding with these opportunities for a quality education at Armstrong State College.

SERVING THE EDUCATIONAL NEEDS OF THE COASTAL EMPIRE

SUMMER 1971

SUMMER SESSION

July 14 - August 13, 1971

A FULL QUARTER OF ONLY NINE WEEKS

Each year more students are discovering the many benefits of attending the summer session at Armstrong State College. A full schedule of credit and non-credit, day and evening, courses are available. Armstrong State College's extensive summer offerings are especially designed for:

1. REGULARLY ENROLLED STUDENTS who wish to accelerate their studies and thereby complete degree requirements much earlier than usual.
2. TEACHERS who need to satisfy certification and recency of credit requirements.
3. HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS who would like to take enrichment courses during the summer.
4. VACATION STUDENTS who are enrolled at other colleges and who would like to take courses "at home" during the summer.
5. NEW FRESHMEN who need remedial courses before beginning regular courses in the fall.
6. ADULTS who want to take either credit or non-degree courses.
7. MILITARY PERSONNEL who desire to take college courses while stationed in Savannah.

Social Life, Activities Increasing At College

Students at Armstrong State College, working with the Director of Student Activities, have over the years, developed a wide variety of events and activities. The latest of these events is Greek Week, sponsored by the fraternities and sororities to promote better relationships between Greek organizations and with the community. To help in accomplishing this, dances are held for the benefit of hospitals, the Kicklighter School and other organizations. Paul Kaluzne and Ellen Ramage

Pruitt Takes Top College Student Post

Dennis Pruitt, a 21-year-old history major from Jacksonville, Florida, defeated Billy Butler of Savannah in his bid for president of Armstrong State College's Student Government Association, in elections April 13th.

Pruitt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pruitt, who is a member of the college's basketball team, won the majority of the votes for the office in what was unofficially recorded as the "heaviest turn-out in the history of the school's student elections."

Voters also approved unopposed candidates Francine Wimbish, incumbent vice-president; Barbara Smith, secretary; and David Horne, treasurer. All reside in Savannah.

Twenty-six student senate seats also were filled under the new constitution.

Armstrong Students Approve Sweeping Constitutional Changes

Armstrong State College students voted Spring quarter for major changes in the make-up of the Student Government Association at the college.

The most sweeping change is in representation on the student senate. The constitutional reform provides for four senators from the freshman and sophomore classes. Junior and senior senators will be elected from each department on campus relative to the number of graduates from the department. Departments graduating up to 15 students per year will be represented by one senator, those graduating more than 15 by two senators. Additionally, there will be two senators-at-large.

Formerly, representation on the student senate included five from each class, plus a president, vice president and secretary from each class. These class officers will be eliminated by the reform.

Linda Cubbedge, student senator and chairman of the senate committee which sponsored the constitutional reform, said that under the newly organized legislative body, the effectiveness of the senate would be increased, a broader base of students would be involved in representation, and that the scope of the senate would be greatly broadened.

EVENING CLASSES

Armstrong offers a wide selection of evening classes on the main campus, and at the Fort Stewart and Hunter Field I & E Centers. These course offerings are listed with the other departmental offerings and also are listed separately under Continuing Education. In some instances the class periods for evening courses may deviate from the class period schedule. In all instances the beginning class time will be correct. In some cases the duration of the period may vary. These differences will be announced during the first class meeting.

SELECTIVE SERVICE

Students who are registered with the Selective Service System should complete an SS Form 109 at the beginning of each academic year. This is usually at the beginning of Fall Quarter. Students who were not enrolled at Armstrong during the Spring Quarter should obtain an SS Form 109 at the Packet Checking Station and complete section 1 and 7 before reaching the Final Processing Station (Step 8) where it should be turned in. Students who were enrolled during the Spring Quarter need not complete another SS Form 109.

VETERANS

Veterans affairs are handled in the Office of Admissions and Records. Veterans and dependents of veterans should check with Mrs. Storey in this office at the beginning of each quarter to make certain that their file is complete. The Certificate of Eligibility is an essential part of your file and should be brought directly to Mrs. Storey in the Office of Admissions and Records.

STUDENTS ON ACADEMIC PROBATION

All students matriculating on academic probation must have their Summer Quarter schedules approved by their faculty advisers.

Nader, Dick Gregory Urbie Green Highlight

Cultural events, such as lectures, plays and recitals, are a real part of student life at Armstrong State College.

The ASC drama troupe, The Masquers, presents quarterly productions of a wide variety of plays from comedy to tragedy, from absurd to musicals.

Armstrong students are admitted to the production free of charge with a valid I. D. card.

Consumer advocate Ralph Nader visited the college following the release of his research teams' findings on the Savannah River. His lecture was one of the most well attended in the history of the college.

Other lecturers have been comedian Dick Gregory, internationally known poet and critic Howard Nemerov, and a host of other notable scientists, historians and representatives from virtually every field of academic endeavor.

The ASC Fine Arts department sponsors many cultural events during the year. Highlighting the 1970-71 Spring Quarter was an appearance on April 19 by Urbie Green, internationally known trombonist. Green was sponsored by the ASC Stage Band which is under the direction of Dr. Charles Lawson.

Recitals by students and local musicians and concerts throughout the year are additional features of the Fine Arts department. The Glee Club provides entertainment during the holiday season with a performance of Christmas Carols.

It's easy to see that culture is an integral part of the life at Armstrong.

Bus Service Established

Armstrong President Dr. Henry Ashmore announced during Spring Quarter the establishment of a shuttle bus service between Armstrong and Savannah State Colleges. The announcement was made during remarks to approximately 70 area high school principals and guidance counselors who were on campus for their annual co-ordinating luncheon.

Dr. Ashmore said that the shuttle buses are to be operated by each college and will leave each campus hourly. The operation of buses will provide a shuttle every half hour for the convenience of students taking courses at both institutions.

Dr. Ashmore, along with SSC President Prince Jackson, expects the service to begin operation in September.

Armstrong Lane Library Best In Southeast

The Lane Library at Armstrong State College added to its collection 13 volumes of U. S. Statutes at Large, during 1970-71.

The statute books were presented to the library by Representative G. Elliott Hagan, and represented what Mrs. Regina Yoast, Armstrong Librarian, called, "a further example of the interest which Representative Hagan has in our library and in Armstrong State College."

This latest addition brings the total number of volumes in the library to 60,072. Lane Library, like the rest of Armstrong State College, has shown remarkable growth since its elevation to senior-college status in 1964. The holdings of the library have tripled in size since the college was located in the downtown area.

The new library is housed in an attractive two-story building, centrally located near classroom buildings. It is well lighted, air conditioned, and handsomely furnished to accommodate 485 persons, whereas the old library would seat only 67. The library is clearly growing as plain statistics show: attendance is up from 39,976 for the year ending in 1965 to 91,163 for 1969; the number of bound periodicals has increased from 3,360 four years ago to over 8,000 last year; subscriptions are up to 560 from 265 in 1965, and circulation has grown from 14,144 to 34,737.

There are a number of items tucked away at the library which are quite significant to the patrons. "A complete set of the National Union Catalogs of the Library of Congress printed cards and the collection of the New York Times on microfilm from the first issue of September 18, 1851 to date are among the important holdings." Mrs. Yoast said.

A recordak microfilm reader-printer and microcard reader are available and a microfiche reader is on order. There are also six tape decks and a record player for use.

"One of the latest enterprises is a substantial collection in the field of marine sciences and geology," says Mrs. Yoast. The library boasts strong holdings in the field of science, especially chemistry and mathematics.

The library is open for service seven days a week. Individual carrel desks and reading rooms are available on both floors. Group study rooms and faculty carrels are located on the second floor.

With the continued interest and support of individuals such as Representative Hagan, and the support of the community at large, the college's Lane Library will continue its laudable growth rate and become an even greater asset to Armstrong State College.

SOCIAL LIFE . . .

were crowned Zeus and Athena, king and queen of Greek Week. Other activities included fraternity house to fraternity house caravans, exchange socials, and fraternity/independent basketball games.

The summer Luau gives faculty and students an opportunity to relax together during the summer quarter.

Tom Nease, director of food services, prepares a kaleidoscope of Polynesian fare which, somehow, never seems to last for the straggler. Stragglers are becoming more and more rare every year.

Entertainment is always a part of the luau, with both students and faculty participating. The results are enjoyable, sometimes amazing and always entertaining!

A variety of activities continues throughout the year at Armstrong. During Fall quarter, the Miss 'Geechee' pageant is held with the winner representing Armstrong in the Miss Georgia Pageant. Also in the Fall quarter is the pop concert. In recent years, this concert has featured Glenn Yarbrough, Kenny Rogers, the Lettermen and other top performers. The basketball season also begins during Fall quarter.

Greek Week and Homecoming are the headliners of Winter. Join the Underwater People ter quarter. Homecoming ceremonies feature a parade, concert, dance and basketball game.

Pioneer Day is the Spring quarter feature. This high-spirited day of pioneer costumes, field events, inter-club booths and competitions is designed to speed recovery from spring fever. The annual Leadership Award Banquet, which recognizes the college's outstanding students, is also held during Spring quarter.

Throughout the year, various events are planned. Activities include dances, plays, lectures, concerts, intramurals and various other special events, funded by the quarterly student activity fee of $15.00. This fee also supports the campus newspaper, the Inwell, and the college annual, the 'Geechee.

An active student life, combined with intellectual stimulation produce a truly valuable educational experience at Armstrong State College.
