STATESBORO, Ga.- This weekend, the Georgia Southern track and field team heads over to Clemson to compete in the two-day Bob Pollock Classic.

"We are excited about the upcoming meet that'll be held at Clemson," head coach Kelly Carter said. "This will be another opportunity for our young ladies to go out and compete against great competition."

Events begin on Friday at 3 p.m. with the last event starting at 7:35 p.m. On Saturday, field competition kicks off at 10:30 a.m. and running commences at noon.

"As conference draws near these type of competitions are going to be vital to our ladies competing well at that time," Carter added. The Eagles started off the indoor season at the Wake Forest Invitational, posting 10 top-5 finishes. Sophomore Rebecca Parker (5000m) and senior Jasmin Walker (long jump) both earned silver accolades, placing them sixth and 10th in the conference respectively. Both are set to compete in two events in Clemson, S.C. Parker is running the one mile and 3000m, while Walker is doing the 60m dash and the long jump.
