STATESBORO - The Georgia Southern Athletics Department and Eagle Football Program announced Friday the official lineup on how to keep up with National Signing Day, which is Wednesday, Feb. 3, as the Department brings Eagle fans the most comprehensive coverage available.

After months of visits, phone calls and decisions, recruits can finally make it official and sign their National Letters of Intent or Grants In Aid bright and early on Wednesday, beginning at 7 a.m. (ET). GSEagles.com will be there from the time the first fax comes through to when the last one is announced and is the place to get all of your information on the newest class of Georgia Southern football players. When a fax is received, and is verified by the compliance office, GSEagles and GATALifestyle (the football program's social media platform) will jointly announce the prospect.

Throughout the day, GSEagles.com will provide the most complete information on the newest Eagles, including bios, stats and highlights, as well as comments and scouting reports directly from GS's coaches. Danny Reed will have a 1-on-1 with head coach Tyson Summers, which will be posted online, and the head man will also conduct a press conference with the local media. Be sure to check out and follow all of these sources for everything you need to know:

Following the announcement of the class, Georgia Southern fans and alumni are invited to attend a special signing day event that evening at Wild Wing Cafe on (52 Aspen Heights Drive) as Summers and his staff will review the 2016 Eagle signees. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., and the program begins at 6 p.m. Fans are encouraged to arrive when doors open as seating is limited. Admission is free, but patrons will be responsible for payment of all of their own food and beverages. Representatives from the Georgia Southern Athletics Ticket Office will be available to answer questions about football season tickets for the upcoming season and assist anyone who would like to renew or make a new purchase. The Sun Belt Conference anticipates releasing the schedule in early March.
