STATESBORO - Former Georgia Southern football player Logan Daves, who is serving as a graduate assistant with the GS Strength & Conditioning Program, has received his strength and conditioning certification (CSCS) from the National Strength and Conditioning Association in February.

The former Eagle offensive lineman, who hails from Blue Ridge, Georgia, played from 2010-14.

"Congratulations to Logan on earning his Strength and Conditioning Certification through the National Strength and Conditioning Association," said Director of Strength & Conditioning Dr. Tredell Dorsey. "This is a big honor and something he should be very proud of."
