ATKINSON'S A' COMING.

The A' Kinson men are coming.
With a record in their hands.
While the Evans are a hollering,
There was a war once on the land,
All honor to Gen. Evans as a preacher.
And when at last he died,
In the grand celestial skies
When Evans in the war was battling,
He acted his part well.
He fought for his people and country,
While his friends around him fell,
But Atkinson's the man for governor.
And a good officer will make.
And would fight for our people.
If their liberties were at stake.
If Evans is nominated for the office,
The people should do the same.
They should fight for victory,
For party and not for name.
Atkinson's record in Georgia,
As we really know,
Is marked with honor and fidelity,
And his character is white as snow.
All honor to one next year or,
Whoever he may be,
Loyal to the democrats,
And work for nominee.

GEORGIA BOY.

EVANS, & ATKINSON, AT ATHENS.

To the Star:

To day has been one of unusual merriment in Athens. The joint late between Hon. W. Y. Atkinson and Gen. Evans was held in the opera house. In accordance with the rules, agreed upon by the committees, Gen. Evans opened the debate. He began in a quiet manner by attacking Mr. Atkinson's speech at Griffin and criticised him in a manner which was thought by many unbecoming as a minister of the Gospel. The balance of his speech was on the income tax, Free coinage, Repeal of the 10% tax on state banks and his record as a general in the late war. On this last topic he dwelt considerably but failed to kindle much enthusiasm.

The people of Georgia have long since learned that because a man is a good soldier by no means proves that he will make a desirable governor. Mr. Evans openly declared that he is greatly devoted to his profession as minister and prefers the position of preacher to that of Gov. For this reason many fail to see why he continues in the race.

After Gen. Evans concluded Mr.
Atkinson was introduced. As soon as his name was called all the students who prefer him instead of Evans arose and greeted him with the yell—Hi yi yi yi yi!
Hip-hooray! Atkinson! Atkinson U. Ga!! When this yell was heard applause ran out from the thousands and Mr. Atkinson came forward and spoke an hour and a half in all and impressive manner. The manner in which he spoke of his college days here in 1875-6 drew cheers from almost every student and citizen in Athens.

He said it was the town of Athens that he met the wife of his bosom mother of his children and her who hallowed his home and that he was more pleased to meet an audience here. He agreed with his opponent on income tax, Free coinage and repeal of 10% tax on state banks; but disagreed with him concerning the management of the soldiers home in Athens.
The able way in which he declared himself and defended his position in regard to the soldiers home, met with with approbation from nearly every old confederate present. He is in favor pensioning the old soldiers and allowing them to spend a dollar as independent as a king.

Mr. Atkinson's speech from beginning to end was logical, full of thought and frequently elicited cheers from the entire audience; peroration was grand and patriotic clothed in elegant and expressive language. He pleaded his cause on the ground of merit and requested that no one vote for him who doesn't think him worthy of the office to which he aspires.

He ask Evans a few question such as why he is so ready to answer "me too" to so many of his (Atkinson's) statements? Why he can ride about over the state and organize Evans clubs when in 92 he could not or would not aid Democracy? To these questions and other similar ones Gen. Evans said he could not give any reply and preferred to avoid them.

Georgia would doubtless be well represented by either of the candidates. But the time has come and the day has dawned when every section and community of Ga must come together and elect the man who has been so potent a factor in our state for the last 8 years. If there be a man who desires the high office of Governor it is that one who is skilled in legislative affairs who has saved the state so many thousand dollars during the few past years who instituted the bill providing for the establishment of the normal college at Milledgeville for the higher education of Ga. girls, who has succeeded in increasing the school funds and the pensions for those who "wore the gray."

Atkinson is the only man that can fill the bill that elects him.
If merit and a man's legislative record are worth anything the people of Georgia from the mountains to the sea, cannot do otherwise than unite in harmony by placing "curly headed bill" in the Gubernatorial chair.
Ewell.

Third Party Of 1894.

Osborn, Ellington and others are on the stump proclaiming their dogmas and appealing to the prejudices of the less informed classes.
Their first round among the people is interesting to Democrats only to learn what gage of battle they are offering. Osborn's speech delivered in Valdosta last Saturday is briefly reviewed in our local columns, and from it our reader will learn what their line is this year.
There are three planks in the new platform.

First, fiat money.
Second, a division of the lands.
Third, abuse of the Democratic party.

A party without principles grounded in human rights never presents the same front in any two campaigns. Their platform is a thing of chance—a thing to catch votes—a thing to influence the masses if possible.

When this party was in its formative state its design was to capture the Democratic party, take charge of the offices, and control the business interests of the country. Latter the subtreasury, ownership of railroads and other schemes developed. But all these vagaries have passed away, and now they rest their case upon fiat money, a division of the land and abuse of the Democratic party.

These agitators are fond of quoting Roman history, as we have shown before. The ordinarily intelligent man knows that when crimes were committed during the Romans in the name of liberty than among any other people known in history. The secret plots and oath bound conspiracies under Catiline and others made the streets of Rome flow in blood, and caused the downfall and death of the bravest and proudest nation of the world u-til that age.

These agitators read garbled extracts from the histories, of that time, and resort to Catilinish methods to stir up the common people.
They hold their secret meetings and even pass resolutions in public pledging "life," "property" and "honor" upon the sacrificial altar to carry out their schemes.

This movement has reached a stage beyond the ordinary political movement. Many of the good people who have been misled by it do not understand what it means (they will quit when they do), but in the speeches of all these men there is a half-smothered, half-exposed defen-sion of law and order, and a hatred of the legally constituted authorities from the President down. The head of the Government who ought to be respected for the sake of the high office he holds, if for no other reason, is execrated, and denounced in public as a thief and robber.

It is time the press was dealing more candidly with this question.
Some of the daily papers handle it gingerly, and others crawl on their all fours before it, and half approximately apologize for it.

THE LATEST NEWS BY WIRE.

A VETO.

DEMOCRACY'S Flag trails in the dust.

The news comes from Washington to day that President Cleveland has vetoed the Bland silver bill recently passed by the Democratic Congress. This we regret.
We consider it a black eye to the party. Mr. Cleveland means by his action to say that the party is composed of a set of fools who do not know what they want. And he himself knows it all. Every member from the South urged the President to sign the bill.
Congressman Lester is reported as saying that there will have to be a line drawn between the two wings of the party. The Eastern wing are opposed to the passage of every pledge made the people and the only salvation of the party is to repudiate the High Tariff, Gold bugs of the East, who are now selling under false colors. They should go to the Republican party where they belong. We are ashamed of any Democrat who tramples the people's interest under his feet.

Atkinson wipes up Evans.
The Morning News and Evans paper, admits today that Mr. Atkinson wiped up the old General in the joint debate yesterday at Hawkinsville.
We arise to congratulate our next Governor.

SENATOR CRISP.
Governor Northern has appointed Speaker Crisp to fill the vacancy in the U. S. Senate caused by the death of Senator Colquitt.
Mr. Crisp has not accepted yet and the probability is that he will not. As the people used him worse where he is than they do in the Senate. We consider it an unwise appointment as it will not elevate a man who already holds a higher position.

GOOD BUSINESS SENSE.
The Star feels constrained to mention the fact that a large number of our people are exercising good business judgment by taking out a good insurance policy on their lives. We do not believe it to be good policy for men to rush into anything when they are not able to keep it. But by all means you should keep a good policy on your life if you can possibly afford it. It is one of the best saving banks you ever had, and in case of death you will not leave your family a day of poverty on the mercy of the world. This has been the policy of the shrewd business men at the North for a number of years, and if it is advantageous to one class of citizens it is to another. By all means if you are able take out a policy on your life.

Any information as to the whereabouts of that grand rascal the Populist who advertised to meet at this place on last Saturday, will be gladly received at this office. It must have got lost on the way.

There should be one consideration placed in the contract for the building of the court house. That is that all laborers be employed at home as far as we are able to furnish it.

In the death of Senator Colquitt the whole nation mourns.

INVESTIGATED THE LAW.

We printed last week several sections of the code bearing on the subject of the administrators' citations. We claimed in that issue of our paper, that the Ordinary was not placing those citations according to the directions given in that book. We asked any one who desired to do so, to take the trouble to look up this matter, and if we were wrong we would then submit. Acting upon our suggestion, the Times Editor spent last Saturday afternoon looking up these sections. What did he find? He found them just like we printed them, and that his paper was not entitled to receive them under the laws of the state, which provides that all legal advertising be published together. Judge Martin has been placed in a false light by the Times Editor, who tries to create an impression, that our Ordinary is so much in love with him, that he will treat with contempt those sections. This is not so, while Judge Martin believes it would be well enough to allow both papers to receive part of the public advertisements, he is not so selfish, or so stiff necked as to let prejudice rule his actions in his official duty, and is ready to do what the law directs him to do in this matter. He has promised to investigate this matter, and told us if he found that we were right that he would act accordingly. And we venture the assertion, that if he will take the same pains in looking those sections that the Times Editor did last Saturday, we will get the advertisements. We are informed by the best legal talent in this town that since reading our article, they have taken the trouble to look up all the law in the matter, and that our position is the right one. We are informed by them that there is no question that when the law says that the county advertisements must follow the sheriff's advertisements, and the administrators' citations must follow the county advertisements that it means that all the legal advertisements must be published in one paper. Otherwise they are illegal. That is those that are not published in the sheriff's official organ.

We can have the new court house without an, also in the rate of taxation. By all means let us have a good one.

Osborn, the Populist crank, has deserted South Georgia, and is going to try his hand up North.

The Columbus Enquirer-Sun says that the blizzard up North will save the fool killers a big job in dealing with Gen. Coxey's army of tramps, Populists, and beggars.

We are in favor of Tom Reed coming down and see that the Populist list a minute for a vote on Alabama, for if it is anything that the T. P. will stand up and vote on it, it is an East on Republicanism.

We hope that Mr. Cleveland will not veto the Bland bill. He may be right, but a majority of the party has said that the bill is right, and it ought to become a law.

The Populists claim that Texas has a tendency to go to the Populist. The Democratic majority in that state will be so heavy this fall that it will again have to be sent down by freight.

The Swainsboro Pine Forest advocates the Star's suggestion that the congressional nominating convention be held at Statesboro this year.

The military boys look like real soldiers in their new uniforms, when they got out on dress parade.

Three coats were at a promenade in this town this week.

There should be one consideration placed in the contract for the building of the court house. That is that all laborers be employed at home as far as we are able to furnish it.

In the death of Senator Colquitt the whole nation mourns.

FOR GOVERNOR OF GEORGIA
HON. W. Y. ATKINSON

THE LATEST NEWS BY WIRE.

A VETO.

DEMOCRACY'S Flag trails in the dust.

The news comes from Washington to day that President Cleveland has vetoed the Bland silver bill recently passed by the Democratic Congress. This we regret.
We consider it a black eye to the party. Mr. Cleveland means by his action to say that the party is composed of a set of fools who do not know what they want. And he himself knows it all. Every member from the South urged the President to sign the bill.
Congressman Lester is reported as saying that there will have to be a line drawn between the two wings of the party. The Eastern wing are opposed to the passage of every pledge made the people and the only salvation of the party is to repudiate the High Tariff, Gold bugs of the East, who are now selling under false colors. They should go to the Republican party where they belong. We are ashamed of any Democrat who tramples the people's interest under his feet.

Atkinson wipes up Evans.
The Morning News and Evans paper, admits today that Mr. Atkinson wiped up the old General in the joint debate yesterday at Hawkinsville.
We arise to congratulate our next Governor.

SENATOR CRISP.
Governor Northern has appointed Speaker Crisp to fill the vacancy in the U. S. Senate caused by the death of Senator Colquitt.
Mr. Crisp has not accepted yet and the probability is that he will not. As the people used him worse where he is than they do in the Senate. We consider it an unwise appointment as it will not elevate a man who already holds a higher position.

GOOD BUSINESS SENSE.
The Star feels constrained to mention the fact that a large number of our people are exercising good business judgment by taking out a good insurance policy on their lives. We do not believe it to be good policy for men to rush into anything when they are not able to keep it. But by all means you should keep a good policy on your life if you can possibly afford it. It is one of the best saving banks you ever had, and in case of death you will not leave your family a day of poverty on the mercy of the world. This has been the policy of the shrewd business men at the North for a number of years, and if it is advantageous to one class of citizens it is to another. By all means if you are able take out a policy on your life.

Any information as to the whereabouts of that grand rascal the Populist who advertised to meet at this place on last Saturday, will be gladly received at this office. It must have got lost on the way.

There should be one consideration placed in the contract for the building of the court house. That is that all laborers be employed at home as far as we are able to furnish it.

NEW COURT HOUSE.
We publish below a list of the subscribers to the building of a new court house.
The town property owners pay one-third and that leaves two-thirds of the cost for the county to pay. With this help from the town, and the fact that our Ordinary pays the county's pro rata with part of last year's taxes, part this year, and part next, makes it light on the people. It will be no burden on any body. Everybody admits the necessity for a new court house, and everybody knows it is needed, and should be built. The objection if any to it can be founded on no consistent reason.
Some people would do it kick, if it did not cost them a cent—just because they love to kick, and talk about economy, when they don't practice it.
The court house will be built at once, and everybody will be glad of it.

On Sunday last little Clio the little seven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brannon of Lenoir died after an illness of several days. She was buried at Fellowship church on Monday afternoon. Elder M. F. Stubbs preached the funeral in the presence of a large congregation of people.

Mr. A. J. Wimberly was more fortunate than the rest of the truckers in this community. He had several acres of Melons that escaped the cold snap.

Elder Stubbs requests us to say that there will be no preaching at the Primitive Baptist Church on Sunday owing to the lack of men.

Dr. W. C. Harris is a guest at the Harris House. He is on his way home from college and come by to see Mr. Harris's family, who are near relatives of his. He will locate in Darlington. County S. C. his old home.

Mr. Wm. Huggins has sold his house on South Main Street to his brother Harry. The old building will be torn down at once and a handsome new one erected in its stead.

Farmers have learned a lesson by this cold snap, that it will not do to crowd the season.

At the joint debate at Griffin Col Atkinson fairly wiped up the Atlanta city's candidate. The same might apply to the ones that followed the Griffin episode.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla strengthens weak nerves, helps digestion, and vitalizes the blood.

Statesboro, and Bulloch county have a world wide reputation as being the best town, in the best county, in the best state, in the best nation, in the best world, that ever was created.

There is no reason why children should be allowed to suffer from loathsome scrofulous sores and glandular swellings when such pleasant, effective, and economical medicine as Ayer's Sarsaparilla may be procured of your nearest druggist. Be sure you get Ayer's.

Great reduction in the price of all kinds of goods, and you get the advantage of same by purchasing your goods at the World's Fair store.
