

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

Newsroom

University Communications and Marketing

6-4-2019

Newsroom

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/newsroom>

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "Newsroom" (2019). Newsroom. 1702.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/newsroom/1702>

This news article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Communications and Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Newsroom by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Savannah Wind Symphony presents 41st annual Patriotic Concert on Armstrong Campus

JUNE 4, 2019

Save

Savannah Wind Symphony will honor active members of the military and veterans during its 41st annual Patriotic Concert on the Georgia Southern Armstrong Campus in Savannah. The concert will be held on June 30 at 3 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium.

Master of ceremonies and longtime friend of Savannah Wind, William Cathcart, said his favorite part of the patriotic concert is the concluding number, "Stars and Stripes Forever," composed by John Philip Sousa.

"It always triggers such strong emotional feelings about our great country, not the least of which is remembering, again, what a magnificent gift it truly is to be an American," he said. "This great concert is a much-anticipated annual Savannah tradition. It's an afternoon of musical patriotism enjoyed by an audience of genuine patriots."

Each year the concert honors distinguished military service and finishes with a surprise appearance by a celebrity persona to conduct "Stars and Stripes Forever." The Fort Stewart 3rd Infantry Division's Honor Guard will present the nation's colors to open the concert, and a senior military officer will recite the narration to the performance of "America the Beautiful."

The performance will include other audience favorites by Irving Berlin, Henry Fillmore, Lee Greenwood and others. The 2018-2019 Chatham County Veteran of the Year, Sgt. 1st Class Nathaniel Paul Howard Jr, U.S. Army, will also be recognized.

Savannah Wind is a community wind symphony serving the Coastal Empire and is comprised of musicians from the greater Savannah area. The role of the ensemble is to enhance the cultural climate and appreciation of music in the Coastal Empire by performing public concerts at a high, artistic level, to provide a nurturing musical environment to talented young musicians in the company of mature and accomplished musicians, and to identify and support scholarship recipients for advanced musical training on the Armstrong Campus.

Georgia Southern University, a public Carnegie Doctoral/R2 institution founded in 1906, offers 141 degree programs serving nearly 26,500 students through nine colleges on three campuses in Statesboro, Savannah, Hinesville and online instruction. A leader in higher education in southeast Georgia, the University provides a diverse student population with expert faculty, world-class scholarship and hands-on learning opportunities. Georgia Southern creates lifelong learners who serve as responsible scholars, leaders and stewards in their communities.

Visit GeorgiaSouthern.edu.

Public history alumna wins Telly Award for work on film

JUNE 4, 2019

Save

Georgia Southern public history alumna Katherine Conner has been selected as a winner in the 40th Annual Telly Awards for her work on the film "Our Citizen-Soldiers."

Conner was the scriptwriter, historian and digital producer on the film. "Our Citizen-Soldiers" is one of a six-part series that highlights the history of citizen soldiers in the World War I era throughout Georgia's history.

Founded in 1979, the Telly Awards honors video and television made for all screens and is judged by The Telly Award Judging Council, which is a group of leading video and television experts from some of the most prestigious companies in entertainment, publishing, advertising and emerging technology.