Obituary

The first chapter in the life of little Arrix Dalafayette Carlie begins with his birth on January 2, 1996 to Mr. Marquis and Mrs. Loise Ann Carlie at the Bulloch Memorial Hospital in Statesboro, Georgia .

His life brought joy to the hearts of many and he touched the lives of everyone who knew and loved him.

Arrix's brief life came to an end on Wednesday, March 27, when his spirit slipped softly out of this restless, careworn world and into a Brighter Day. This concluded the last chapter in his book of life, and it is placed on the shelf of eternity.

To his family, Arrix was very special. He leaves to cherish many loving memories: his parents, Mr. Marquis and Mrs. Loise Ann Carlie of Metter, Georgia; grandparents, Mr. Eugene Mikell, Mr. Lenard and Mrs. Stella M. Wilson, Mr. Randy and Mrs. Sarah Burke and Mr. Bobby and Mrs. Barbara Carlie, all of Metter, Georgia; great-grandparents, Mrs. Lizzie Robertson of Twin City, Georgia, Mrs. Mamie Seays, Mrs. Minnie Lee Newkirk and Mrs. Queen Esther Mikell, all of Metter, Georgia; three aunts, Miss Shella Robertson of Twin City, Georgia, Miss Latisha Seays and Miss LaToya Carlie, both of Metter, Georgia; three uncles, Mr. Eugene Robertson, Mr. Robbie Seays, and Mr. Bobby Lee Carlie, Jr. all of Metter, Georgia; eleven great-aunts; twelve great-uncles; and many cousins, other relatives and friends.

"God Needed An Angel In Heaven"

God gave you your son for such a little while, he put a bit of Heaven in the sunshine of his smile. He took dust from the brightest twinkling stars and made his sparkling eyes. And now, he's gone back home to God, to live up in the skies. And though he left so quickly that your hearts are grieved and sad, we know he lives with God and his loving heart is glad. And though your precious darling was just a rosebud small, he'll bloom in all his beauty on the other side of the wall.
