FAREWELL

Farewell my loved ones it's time to go
The Master had already written it so.
Please don't weep, for I'm at peace now
Just asleep

The situation may be unfair,
And you may feel that things are a mess.
But God said in Matthew 11:28
"Come unto me and I will give you rest."
This is only a storm in your life that
Will soon pass away

Remember, after the storm, comes a brighter day.
And if somewhere I made a mistake;
As you live many you will make.
Farewell my loved ones, I've called it a day;
I have packed my burdens and gone away.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Elizabeth (Granny) Lee Carney was born May 3, 1915 in Statesboro, Georgia to the late Mr. John and Mrs. Sallie Lee. She departed her walk of life on Monday, March 6, 2006 at 9:45 p.m. at her residence after a short term of illness, under the care of Vista Care.

She received her early education in the schools of Statesboro, Georgia. She later moved to Miami, Florida and New York. She was employed by Mr. and Mrs. Ash, journalist. She was an excellent homemaker and caregiver. In 1983, she moved from Miami, Florida to Statesboro, Georgia and reunited herself at the Historical First African Baptist Church, where she served faithfully until her health began to fail.

She was preceded in death by her husband Mr. Theodore (Ted) Carney. They were married for forty-nine years. She was preceded in death by her son, Mr. William Hendley, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory to a niece Mrs. Gladys Lynch of Miami, Florida; a devoted caregiver, Mrs. Mildred (James) Hughes of Savannah, Georgia; and a host of other relatives and friends.
