Obituary

The late Mrs. Effie Lundy Burns was born January 6, 1887, to the late Mr. George Lundy and the late Katie Hall Lundy. She departed this life November 3, 1985, at 12:05 a.m. after a long illness.

At an early age, she joined the Miller Grove Baptist Church and later joined the Summer Hill Baptist Church. In 1953, she moved to Oakland, Florida where she united in faith with the Trinity Missionary Baptist Church, Oakland, Florida where she served until health failed her. As a young worker of Christian Faith, she became a member of the Eastern Star.

She was joined in holy matrimony to the late Horace Jackson and to this union four children were born. Later years, she was married to the late Van Buren Burns and to this union five children were born. Two children preceded her in death: Mrs. Floria Mae Bellinger and Mr. Earnest Jackson.

She leaves to mourn, two daughters, Mrs. Mamie Jackson Allen of Statesboro, Ga., and Mrs. Beatrice Burns of Troy, N.Y.; five sons, Mr. Johnny Jackson of Oakland, Fla., Mr. Bennie Burns of Statesboro, Ga., Mr. J. B. Burns of Troy, N.Y., Mr. Van Buren Burns of New York, N.Y., and Mr. Eugene Talmadge Burns of Patterson, N.J.; one brother, Mr. Luther Lundy of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; 22 grandchildren, 32 great-grandchildren, 53 great-great-grandchildren, 36 great-great-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and other sorrowing friends.

*No more sorrow will she have
No more burdens will she bear
No more heartaches will she endure
Weighed down with endless care, rest now
While here on earth she did her best,
A friend to all she tried to be.
This day no regrets will she have,
While you look at her, say, rest now
No more will she fret and worry about what a day might bring,
She'll go now to a city,
Where God's Holy Angels sing "Rest Now".*
