DON'T

Don't spend too much time in mourning
Tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus and
This should make you glad

Don't waste your hours in grieving
No need to feel distress
I'm tired of life frustrations
And had to get some rest

Don't vex yourself with questions
Or try to reason why
Life for me has ended;
It came my time to die

Don't lose the love I gave you;
Feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion and
Spread it everywhere

Don't fret because my leaving
Came in such a way
We'll have another meeting
In God's eternal day

THE ORDER OF SERVICE

"LIFE REFLECTIONS"

Mrs. Naomi Nettie King Doggett was born to Mr. James Butler King and Mrs. Ella Elizabeth Love King on January 14, 1925 in Rutherfordton, North Carolina. She was the 7th child of 8 children.

She attended the Allen Home Boarding School in Asheville, North Carolina from 2nd through 12th grade, after which she enrolled in North Carolina State University. It was during this time that she met and later married Odell J.L. Doggett in 1945. To this union, one daughter, Patricia, was born.

The family moved to Jacksonville, Florida in 1955 where she united with the Laura Street (later renamed Woodlawn) Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Doggett attended Woodlawn until her health began to fail.

Naomi departed this life on October 31, 2010, preceded in death by her husband, four brothers and two sisters. She leaves to mourn her passing, a daughter, Ms. Patricia Parker; granddaughter, Ms. Erika Nicole Parker; one surviving sibling, Lillian K. Roberts of Charlotte, N. C.; sister-in-law, Dorothy Williams; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

IN APPRECIATION

Your kind expressions of love lifts our spirits and makes us realize that we are not alone. Moreover, we have found added strength and a deepened faith and gratitude to God for Naomi Doggett's life.

Please accept our deep and abiding appreciation for your comforting care and concern.
