FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

He leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Ms. Annie Lois Donaldson of Metter, GA; his fiance, Angela Spann of Metter, GA; two sons: Coy and Nakia Donaldson both of Metter, GA.; one daughter, Danielle Donaldson of Metter, GA.; two brothers: Patrick Donaldson of Savannah, GA. and Kortney Donaldson of Metter, GA., one sister, Tiffany Mincey of Metter, GA.; his grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Pearl Donaldson of Metter, GA.; two half brothers: Keith of Lyons, Ga. and Tyrone of Rhode Island; three half sisters: Gwen of Lyons, GA., Kim of Rhode Island, and Mikki of Japan; several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

All loved Coy and will truly miss the joy he brought to our lives.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
The weary hour, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
