Obituary

Evangelist Moses Doomes, Jr. died on Saturday, May 18, 2002 at Wayne Memorial Hospital after a short illness. He was a native of Wayne County. He was the son of Mr. Moses Doomes, Sr. and Mrs. Janie Doomes Battle.

At an early age, he confessed Christ and united himself with the First AB Baptist Church of Screven, Georgia. He received his elementary and high school education in the public schools of Wayne County.

In 1974, he relocated to Houston, Texas where he pursued his ministry. For one year, he served as a Deacon, then he was ordained and served as pastor of various churches. He later relocated and was the pastor of St. James in Nichols, Georgia, Travelers Rest in Folkston, Georgia, and Piney Grove in Blackshear, Georgia. Due to illness, he relocated back home and joined Railroad Avenue Church of God as a member where he served in various auxiliaries until his death.

He leaves to cherish his memories: a devoted wife, Missionary Beatrice Faye Wiggins Doomes of Atlanta, Georgia; one son, Ezekiel Cooper, III of Atlanta, Georgia; one daughter, Monteea Lavette Duncan of Atlanta, Georgia; one grandson, Charles Duncan, Jr. of Atlanta, Georgia; four brothers, Willie (Shirley) Brown, Mack (Louise) Doomes, Bishop Nathan (Patricia) Flowers and his God-brother, Robert (Pearlie) Bryant, all of Jesup, Georgia; one son preceded him in death, Gregg Doomes; one sister, Lorene Eaglin; nephews, Ricky Durio, Wellma Jean Arnold, John Flowers of Brunswick, Georgia, and Snapper of Houston, Texas; two sisters, Myrtice (John) Jones of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and Gwendolyn (Junis) Eaglin of Houston, Texas; sister-in-law, Ronella (James) Knowls; aunts, Mrs. Annie Reddish of Jesup, Georgia, Mrs. Evelyn Jones of Brunswick, Georgia; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Wiggins of Jesup, Georgia; special nieces, Regina Bess of Brunswick, Georgia, Valene Jones of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Zilla Horton of Jesup, Georgia, Shantell & Sheila of Houston, Texas and the Moore nieces and nephews; special nephews, Levern Smith of Gardi, Georgia, Sylvester (Jakie) Arnold and Jerome (Shirley) Roundtree of Brunswick, Georgia, Anthony Durio of Houston, Texas, John (Teresa) Jones, James (Maud) Doomes of Houston, Texas, Willie Williams of Brunswick, Georgia, and James Williams of New York; two nephews preceded him in death, Wellma Jean Arnold and Ricky Durio; four God-children, James Lavar, Lavada, Portia and Teoria Darling; and a host of great-grands, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
