After his death, she married Mr. Norman Doyle. To this union one child was born.

At an early age, she joined Sams Creek Baptist Church where she served faithfully until her health failed her.

Mrs. Doyle is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Anderson of Cincinnati, Oh.; two sons, Walter Mason and Norman Doyle, both of Metter, Ga.; one brother, Sanford Eason of Long Island, N.Y.; nine grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

*Farewell my dear one, don't weep
For I'm at peace now, just asleep.
Farewell my children, I'm not alone
The mighty maker has led me safely home.
Just think back over the many years
How mama seemed so strong, holding back tears
Yet God somehow always made a way
And I thanked Him every night for another day.
Be Good my children, always love each other
Be a thoughtful sister, a kind brother.
Be strong my children, strong in heart
The Blood ties, no one can ever part.
And if somewhere I made a mistake
As you live, many you will make.
Farewell my children, I've been called away.
Walk with God, trust in him each day.*
