Obituary

Naturally, our hearts are filled with sorrow and tears flow when loved ones are taken from us, but we should still our grief long enough to think what going home means for a loved one. Tolls and burden bearing is exchanged for the repose of heaven. We now rejoice and thank God for a life which leaves behind it a radiance of purity, goodness, and peace.

A full life came to a close Monday, January 19th, 2015, when Joseph C. Duncan was called to his heavenly home. Joseph was born in Lancaster, South Carolina on February 13th, 1932 to Albert Duncan and Willie Mae Sings. Joseph served honorably in the United States Army. He was joined in holy matrimony to Altomease Munroe on January 25, 1997. Upon their move to Jacksonville in 2007, they joined Woodlawn Presbyterian Church USA. He was a faithful and devoted member until his home going. He was dedicated to studying the bible. He served as one of the 11:00 a.m. Wednesday bible study instructors as well as formerly assisted with the men's Sunday school class.

He leaves in mourning his most cherished wife, Altomease Duncan; of seventeen years, his son, Jevon Duncan (Keisha) of Washington DC; two stepsons, Alexander Munroe (Aida) of Plantation, Florida and Barry Munroe (Darwin Gamble) of Tallahassee, Florida; five sisters, Francis Brace, Emily Trousdale, Myrtle Henderson of Lancaster, South Carolina, Wilma Holley, Susie Branson of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; grandchildren; nieces; nephews; goddaughter Rosalind Bronner Davis; cousin; other relatives and sorrowing friends.
