STATESBORO, Ga. – The Georgia Southern men's tennis team wrapped up the second day of the Georgia Southern Championships as three Eagles advanced to the semifinals in the Singles Main Draw. Santiago Suarez will face off against David Durham of Kennesaw State, while Dani Casablancas will face off against JC Alcala in the semifinals at 9 a.m. Sunday morning.

"We had a very competitive day with a lot of tennis. All the players competed hard and we got a lot of wins. We have been working hard this fall and we are seeing a lot of what we are doing in practice back in the matches which is good." said Coach Sander Koning. "I am very pleased with the freshmen so far. They have been able to compete hard for two days in a row and we will see tomorrow if they can keep up this level of play. We have three players in the semifinals and it will be another good day of tennis."
