Blount, Jr. of Statesboro, Ga.; 11 aunts, three uncles, several nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

THE TOUCH OF JESUS'S HAND

*We cannot find a truer word,
Nor better, to address you,
Nor song, Nor words we have heard,
Is sweeter than, "We love you."
For though in the quiet evening,
You gave us the kiss of peace,
The love from your heart will endure forever,
And the pain shall now cease.
For years of life have passed us by,
Knowing your absence would bring forth cry.
As we look upon your quiet face
Visions and smiles of that lovely place.
The smile that's worthy of all the fears
Is the smile that shines through lonely tears.
When hearts are broken on that gloomy day and time,
Leaving family, love ones, and friends behind.
Whatever you need, if you ask it in prayer,
You can leave it with God for you are His care.
As you depart life on this short and sad day,
Knowing you have gone with God in His own special way.
Remembering what we did and what we were going to do,
For nobody else can do the work
That God's marked out for you.*
