My Last Request

*Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.
 Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.
 Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best,
 Just say I tried to do what's right,
 to give the most I could, not less.
 Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.
 I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.
 Please don't give me flowers, or talk in harsh tones.
 Don't be concerned about me now
 I'm well with God, I've made it home.
 Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done.
 Just see to all my family's needs, the battle has been won.
 When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint;
 I've done some good, I've done some wrong, So use all your paint.
 Not just the bright and light tones, use some gray and dark
 In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart.
 Don't just remember all the good times, but remember some bad.
 For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.
 If you must do something, then I have one last request.
 Forgive me for the wrongs I've done with the love that's left.
 Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God I've been blessed.
 Thank God for all who loved me. Praise God who loved me best.*

My Last Party

When you come to my last party
Don't come with faces long.

But come with memories that are pleasant

In your heart let there be a song

The place will be full of flowers,

And I will be dressed grand.

The only thing I shall be sorry for,

I will not be able to shake your hand.

When you come to my last party

My Lord will be the host.

Because 'tis he 'mongst all my friends

Who really loves me most.

He bore my cross at Calvary,

He bears my cross today.

When you leave, He will still be with me

To comfort me on my way.
